BANQUET AND DANCE HELD SATURDAY NIGHT

The banquet and dance which closed the convention of the National Federation of Federal Employees on May 31 was an enjoyable occasion and was attended by over a hundred delegates, members and guests. The armory was the scene of the proceedings, being attractively decorated with patriotic flags and banners. The tables, arranged in a semi-circle were adorned with bouquets of roses. At the speakers' table were seated: Toastmaster Robert F. Harvie, president of the Roseburg local; National Organizer Earl F. Hoage; State President L. J. Cauffield; Retiring State Vice-President Clarence K. Rand; Retiring State Secretary Mounsey; National Vice-President Oscar Dam of Seattle; Washington State President, Heinrichs; Newly-elected Vice-President, Davidson; Newly-elected State Secretary, Alice M. Henneberger; Sergeant-at-Arms, Tim Sullivan, and Mrs. R. F. Harvie.

The toastmaster opened the ceremonies by an introduction of all out-of-town delegates and their wives. Portland, Burns, Eugene, Klamath Falls, Lakeview, Warm Springs, Corvallis and Chemawa locals were represented. Following that the various state and national officers were introduced. Short messages regarding the aims and accomplishments of the organization were given by Oscar Dam, L. J. Cauffield and Earl Hoage. Mr. Hoage especially gave an inspiring talk on what the organization must accomplish during the present national emergency and in the face of growing subversive groups. The visitors were also entertained by a piano solo by Bette Owen and several clever numbers from Sandy's dance revue. The dance orchestra also played several numbers during the dinner.

Following the banquet the group joined in dancing for the remainder of the evening. Numerous "Paul Jones" dances were engaged in to further acquaintance among the groups. The occasion thus became delightfully informal and was a fitting climax to the convention.
