CHRISTINE JENSEN AND MARVIN HELLAND MARRY

YONCALLA, June 5.—Of interest to Yoncalla and vicinity is the wedding of Miss Christine Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jensen of Willamina and Marvin Helland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Stenseth of Yoncalla. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents in Willamina, Sunday, June 1, at one o'clock.

Rev. Harold Miles, pastor of the Willamina Methodist church, read the ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families of both bride and groom. An improvised altar made with a white lattice covered with pink roses and ivy, and large baskets of calla lilies, mock oranges and pink snap dragons made a beautiful setting for the wedding. The altar was lighted by white tapers in silver candelabra.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white silk marquisette dress over white satin, with high neck line and long sleeves and a long train. Her bridal veil fell to the hem of her skirt, and was caught in her hair by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with a shower of white satin ribbon and Cecil Brunner roses, bound with a family heirloom necklace 125 years old.

Her only attendant was Mrs. Olger Helland, of Portland, who wore a floor length dress of white net over a satin slip and carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink sweet peas and yellow rose buds in a nest of pink satin ribbon. Olger Helland was his brother's best man.

Miss Venola Marsh sang, "Oh, Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly," before the ceremony, accompanied by Miss Marguerite Miles on the piano, who also played the Lohengrin's wedding march.

Mrs. J. A. Jensen, mother of the bride wore an orchid crepe dress and a corsage of pink and white rosebuds and sweet peas. Mrs. Eric Stenseth, the groom's mother, wore a soldier blue redingote dress and a corsage of pink rose buds and sweet peas. The bride's grandmother also wore orchid and a corresponding corsage.

A wedding dinner was served following the ceremony. The table was beautifully decorated with a large three tier wedding cake with a miniature bride and groom on top and silver leaves around the base.

The bride chose as her going-away costume a soldier blue redingote dress with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias and pink rose buds. After a short wedding trip to Crater Lake, Diamond Lake and Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Helland will be at home at the Kohlhaugen apartments in Roseburg.

The bride is a graduate of Willamina high school and Linfield college. She has taught in Yoncalla high school for the last four years. The groom is a graduate of Yoncalla high school, class of '39, and is a member of the Sigma Pi fraternity. He is affiliated with the Douglas Forest Protective association in Roseburg.

Guests present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jensen, Delmar Jensen and Jay Jensen, Jr., and grandmother, of Willamina; Miss Marguerite Miles and Rev. Harold Miles of Willamina, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Stenseth, Mrs. Nettie Hanan, Miss Venola Marsh of Yoncalla, Mr. and Mrs. Olger Helland of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Don Healy, of Washington.

POET'S CORNER

THAT KILLER OF ROMANCE (POISON OAK)

By ORPHA COLLINS
A loving couple strolled amid
The bloom of Oregon lanes
Next day their swollen features told

Of poison oak's sharp pains.
Their courtship ended, 'cause
there was
A transformation made—
His lips turned him to a "grizzly bear"
And hers, to a "reg'lar Jade!"
