WAR RELIEF SEWING GROUPS CONTRIBUTING SUPPORT TO BRITAIN

The organization of Bundles for Britain, which has been taken over by the Christian Science War Relief organization, is making extensive progress in this county according to an announcement made by Mrs. Annie L. Russell and Mrs. Viola Wilson, co-chairman for the organization here.

The War Relief pays all costs of transportation to Boston from Portland and from the east coast to England, while two local freight companies, the Pierce Auto Freight and the Consolidated Truck Lines, have donated their services to the organization by hauling without charge, five-hundred pounds twice every month from Roseburg to Portland.

Roseburg ladies have been meeting twice every month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Strawn on Overlook to sew and work on garments, which are later shipped to the Portland headquarters. According to the chairmen in charge, the Roseburg residents and numerous clubs in the county are cooperating in the sewing work as well as contributing money for this cause. A particular demand has been made for men and boys clothing. The sewing meetings are open to everyone interested in helping with this project. Four shipments have been made from Roseburg since March.
