DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS. It was the custom for every Jew to go to Jerusalem each year to keep the Feast of the Passover. As the pilgrims made their way to Jerusalem from their homes in Galilee and Judea, they loved to sing praises to their God for His delivery of the first-born of the Hebrews at the time the death angel smote the first-born of the Egyptians. One of their favorite songs was the one hundred and twenty-first psalm. "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. What an inspiration to picture these Jews walking along, looking, looking up at the Judean hills. Singing this beautiful psalm of praise and trusting love. What an example to us today who are so prone to look downward, instead of lifting our eyes that we may receive help and guidance from Him who hath made heaven and earth. All of us have cares and disappointments; but instead of looking downward or inward and brooding over our troubles and grievances, let us lift our hearts in prayer and put our trust in God. If we would receive strength and guidance from God we too must look constantly upward from whence cometh our help, for our help is from the Lord.
