

Cardinals Regain Top as Cincinnati Defeats Brooklyn

By JUDSON BAILEY (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Cincinnati Reds are beginning to win like champions, even if they don't always look like baseball's kingpins.

Taken game by game during the past couple of weeks the Reds have been the beneficiaries of more lucky victories than you could shake a bat at.

The Cardinals' conquest was a double wound for the Giants because it was achieved on the fourth hurling of Gumbert, whom Bill Terry traded to St. Louis last month for McGee, along with cash and Paul Dean.

One of the fine pitching performances of the day was a six-hitter by Wilkie of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who shut out the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-0.

The Chicago Cubs set off a 21-hit fireworks display at Boston to beat the Braves 13-6, and present 42-year-old Charley Root the 197th victory of his career.

Yesterday was an open date for all American league clubs.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Thursday, June 12. All lambs are to be brought to the show and in the pens by not later than 10 a. m. on the showday.

In addition to the regular premiums paid by the show, the Oregon Wool Growers auxiliary is paying a special premium of $5 to some club member at the show who has not exhibited more than two years and someone other than the first place winner.

County Club Agent E. A. Britton states he has had several requests regarding the disposition of the money solicited for a 4-H woodworking shop by O. G. Hughson.

The program has been held up somewhat due to injury of the man wanted as instructor. However, the request has been made through the WPA for a project and it is thought the shop will be in operation by July 1.

Commons Calls On Churchill For More War Vigor

LONDON, June 10. (AP)—The house of commons, in belated mood over Britain's reverses in the Mediterranean, confronted Prime Minister Churchill today with sharp demands for a more vigorous war strategy.

Principal among the government's critics was Leslie Hore-Belisha, former war secretary, who berated Britain's war leaders chiefly for failure in the air. He charged that 100 more fighter planes might have turned the tide in Greece and protested vehemently over what he declared was the RAF command's unimaginative insistence that an air-borne invasion could not drive the British from Crete.

The former war secretary questioned Churchill's optimism over British supplies and wound up with the solemn warning that only "greater vigor and imagination" will bring Britain victory.

A proposal that dominion leaders share responsibility for Britain's war effort in a compact cabinet was rejected by the prime minister with a flat "no."

The general tenor of criticism was that the RAF, heroes of the battle of Britain last fall, had failed the army and navy in the Crete disaster and Hore-Belisha urged a separate army air force. Losses in Crete Revealed

Churchill, answering the criticism, said it was "calculated to challenge the security of the administration." He declined several requests for a detailed statement on the war in the eastern Mediterranean.

"No full statement can possibly be given," he said, "without revealing valuable information to the enemy."

He declared that Britain lost 15,000 men in killed, wounded and prisoners in the battle for Crete against 5,000 Germans drowned, 12,000 killed or wounded and 180 fighters and bombers and 150 troop-carrying German aircraft destroyed.

The prime minister made the charge that the Germans had driven British and New Zealand walking wounded before them in the Crete fighting.

He retracted his earlier charge, however, that German paratroopers had worn New Zealand uniforms.

The British losses recounted did not include Greek or Cretan casualties, he said.

Have you discovered how smoothly you get instant speed with Finer Flying A?

SMOOTH AT EVERY SPEED

PASSING PERMITTED

Try a tankful today and feel the difference at any speed

Go fast. Go slow. Go fast again. Out of one traffic zone into another. 25 45 15 10

At one of these traffic speeds your car probably gives you trouble. That is, with ordinary gasoline. Maybe it's at 25 miles per hour. Maybe only at 45. Or maybe your motor balks only when you step on the gas for quick pick up. But you need not have this trouble anymore because here's a gasoline smooth at every speed.

It's 7 gasolines blended into one. Famed Polymerized gasoline is one of the seven. Cracked gasoline is one. Recently developed Alkylated gasoline is another. Reformed, Solvent-refined, Straight-run and Natural gasolines complete the lucky seven. Each fuel has its own special job to do in Finer Flying A. One fuel keeps your motor smooth on the hard pull... another reduces knock at traffic speeds... another assures smoothness at higher speeds, etc. All are blended into Finer Flying A to keep your motor smooth at every speed.

Give it a trial. Put in a tankful of this scientific blend. Discover how smoothly you pick up speed with Finer Flying A. Go fast, go slow. Go fast again—smooth at every speed.
