STATE CONVENTION IS ENJOYED AT CORVALLIS

Mrs. Clifford Smith and Mrs. Ralph Herman, delegates from the Roseburg Junior Woman's club to the state convention at Corvallis last week, have returned here and have reported a very enjoyable and successful convention.

The Thursday's meeting was opened with an address by Mrs. Eugene Owens, state chairman of Junior Women's clubs, on the subject "Our Own Reality." Reports were given by the clubs, followed by a quiz session in charge of the Salem Juniors and an address by Dr. Ernest Warrington on "The Spiritual Values of Religions in Relation to a Child."

Luncheon was served at noon at the Memorial building lunch room. Clever hand-hammered letter openers were presented by the hostess club to the delegates as favors. Special tribute was paid the Silverton and Roseburg Junior clubs as the two oldest Junior clubs in the state. Mrs. Owens gave a resume of her recent trip through California and the southern states to Washington, D. C., Boston and New York.

A joint session with the senior clubs was held in the afternoon with Mrs. H. D. Petersen, state president, giving her report. The address of the afternoon was given by an FBI official from Portland on the subject, "The Development of the FBI and Its Work."

A tea followed at the beautiful country home of Mrs. J. A. Hanson in honor of Mrs. Peterson. State officers and officers of the Corvallis hostess Junior and Seniors clubs, received. The decorations were unusually lovely and special music was arranged for the occasion.

The evening's meeting opened with a professional with delegates participating. Reports of clubs were given with Mrs. Clifford Smith giving the report of the Roseburg Junior club and Mrs. Vern Brown, district No. 2 president, giving the report of the district. The Junior clubs of Oregon presented a lovely gift to Mrs. Owens with Mrs. Brown making the presentation speech. Mrs. Georgia MacMollar sang two beautiful numbers and Mrs. Iverson Macadam, recently of London, and who with her children is now in Portland with her parents, was the guest speaker of the evening on the subject, "America's Talents." Following the program, the senior club women held a charming informal reception honoring the Junior women.

The next district No. 2 convention was announced for April, 1942, at Taft, Ore., with the North Lincoln Juniors as hostesses.

SUITCASE PACKING

By ORPHA COLLINS
She'd been advised, in packing—
"Fill the shoes with odds and ends."
And so she tried that very thing
And on that plan depends,
For when she got her shoes filled up
She found out, by the way,
She had no need for a suitcase
And saved on extra pay.

The "Thief of Bagdad"
