By "HAP" APPELGADE
Floyd Baughman, local bowling alley proprietor, fielder for the Boucock Butchers, proved last night that his athletic ability is not confined entirely to his own maple alleys. Practically single-handed he put the Butchers at the top of the softball league by driving in six of his team's runs as Boucock's won 9 to 5 from Texaco Chiefs in the best game of the season to date.

In the opening game, Dunham's Transfermen walloped Glide 19 to 2. Despite the fact that pitcher Kenny Laurance, who allowed Glide only two bingles, didn't need many runs to win the contest, his teammates scored in every inning and piled up 18 hits, including four homers. Dutch Mills, Fred Scherner, Kenny Laurance and Vic Domenico, each laid out four-play swats. Plin Laurance rapped out two three-baggers.

The second game was a real thriller until the final out. Al Merritt, pitching for the Butchers, and Ellison, tossing for Texaco, were both stingy with hits in the early part of the game. The Butchers broke into the run column in the second inning when Bruton drew a walk and was scored ahead of Baughman when the latter laid the ball over the outfield for a homer. Boucock's added four more in the fourth to pile up a lead of 6 to 0.

In the first three innings Merritt did not allow a Chief to reach first, but the Texaco batters began to find the ball in the fourth, and, with a couple of bad errors

Seals Win Over Rainiers, But Lose Star Third-Sacker

(By the Associated Press)

San Francisco slammed out a 15-hit, 10 to 3 win over Seattle last night—but it was the most expensive victory in the Coast league this season. Their crack third baseman, Ted Jennings, made his final exit from the playing field for the season on a stretcher in the second inning. He shattered the bones in his right ankle when he slid into second base on the force end of a double play.

The Seals scored four runs off Seattle's Gregory on four hits, two walks and a wild pitch. Gregory lasted but a third of an inning and Scribner finished the game.

Sam Gibson was credited with the win. He yielded eight hits. Sacramento pounded out a 10 to 3 victory in winning over Hollywood.

The Senators held the Stars to one earned run and the Stars used three pitchers in a vain attempt to stem the Senators' 16-hit onslaught. The Stars and the Seals are now tied for fourth, just a half game behind third-place Seattle.

San Diego took a firmer grip on second place by defeating Oakland 5 to 2 behind the seven-hit pitching of Terry.

Portland came through with a 2 to 1 win over Los Angeles when Reich slammed out a home run in the eleventh inning to break up a pitchers' duel between Hilcher of Portland and Prim of Los Angeles.

Reich, soon to become a soldier, knocked Prim's first pitch in the eleventh over the fence. Hilcher, winning his sixth game, gave up six hits and Prim was touched for eight.

Return Home.—Mr. and Mrs. John William Robertson and two children, Camille Anne and John Marvin, are back at their home on North Jackson street. Mr. Robertson attended the Shell school in Portland for two weeks and was joined there last Saturday by his family. Mrs. Robertson and children stopped in Aurora, Ore., en route north to visit at the Diller home. Over the week-end the Robertson family made a trip to The Dalles to visit Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Wade, formerly of this city, and went on to Redmond to visit the Gayle Bartel family, also formerly of Roseburg. During their absence, the Robertson residence was redecorated.

HYDRA-MATIC* OLDSMOBILES
without ever pushing a clutch!

That's the chant of men on the march—and the lament of drivers with clutches to push. But not so with the army of owners of Hydra-Matic Oldsmobiles. Their left feet are left with no work at all to do. And their right hands are right where they belong—on the steering wheel—with no gear-shift levers to manipulate.

No wonder 100,000 Olds Hydra-Matic owners are so highly enthusiastic! In three hundred million miles on the road, they have found new freedom in driving.

Why not join the ranks of "freed" Hydra-Matic drivers! Hydra-Matic, remember, is the only drive in the world that eliminates the clutch pedal completely—the only one that provides fully automatic shifting. You enjoy the world's simplest, easiest method of driving. You thrill to new performance. You get new savings in gas.

No doubt about it, Hydra-Matic's the coming way to drive—come in and try it!

Warneke's 1-Hit Job Keeps St. Louis At Top of League

By JUDSON BAILEY

Lon Warneke, veteran of the St. Louis Cardinals shut out the Phils 3-0 yesterday. The only blow off him was a single by Mueller, the home club's first man up in the opening inning.

The Cardinals themselves made just eight hits off St. Johnson and Crouch, but these were all they needed to retain their hold on the National league lead.

There was some other fine pitching yesterday. Bob Feller achieved his 13th victory of the season and eighth straight by holding the Washington Senators to four hits while the Cleveland Indians slapped out a 4 to 1 decision.

Steven Peek, rookie knuckleballer of the New York Yankees, had a one-hitter going into the ninth inning against the Chicago White Sox. He weakened to allow five singles and three runs in that frame, but the Yankees won easily, 8-3, and took over second place in the American league. Rigney pitched scoreless for five innings, but in the sixth Crossett homered with the bases loaded and the Yanks batted around for five runs.

Tommy Bridges, the little veteran of the Detroit Tigers, put on a strikeout show against the Philadelphia Athletics, fanning 14, but tired badly in the late innings and had to be rescued by Benton as Detroit won, 4-3.

A night game between the Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns was postponed.

Dodgers Defeat Pirates.
The Brooklyn Dodgers cut short their slump with a 4-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates, who were held to six hits by their old nemesis, Fred Fitzsimmons. Vaughan hit a three-run homer to save the Buccaneers from a shut-out. Camilli smashed his 13th round-tripper of the season for the Dodgers.

Johnny Vander Meer achieved his sixth success of the season by scattering nine hits as the world champion Cincinnati Reds beat the Boston Braves, 4-3, for their ninth conquest in 11 games and took over third place. McCormick, gradually breaking out of his prolonged batting slump, hit three doubles to figure in all the Reds' runs.

Verr, Olsen pitched the Chicago Cubs to an 11-0 shutout of the New York Giants on seven well-spaced hits while his teammates waded into McGee. Leiber homered with the bases loaded and added a double. Nicholson hit his 12th homer with two on. It was McGee's fifth straight loss as a Giant.

Arrive For Visit.—E. W. Diller and daughter, Miss A. S. Diller, of Aurora, Oregon, have arrived to spend a month visiting the former's sister, Mrs. H. P. Conn, in Melrose, and with his son, Walter Diller, and niece, Mrs. John William Robertson, in this city.
