A World of Wanderers

PERHAPS no war of the past has ever driven from their homes so many people... Everyone knows, in a vague general way, that many people in Europe have been forced to leave the places where they had built their homes and their lives.

It is, however, a tragedy of such mountainous size that only a survey like that made recently by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. can reveal its appalling extent.

Had you realized that these fruits have been gathered by the men who rashly decided to make Europe over by force?

More than 300,000 people have been forced to leave Germany. Perhaps 400,000 other Germans have been brought back into Germany from the Baltic, Polish, and Bessarabian territories seized by Russia.

Several hundred thousand people, mostly Ukrainians, were received back by Russia in her conquered territories, mostly from Poland.

About 175,000 Austrians are being moved into Germany from the Italian Tyrol. A hundred thousand were expelled from Alsace-Lorraine by the conquering Germans.

A half million Finns would not live in the part of Finland seized by Russia, but moved into distressed Finland itself.

In unoccupied France there is a horde of fugitives, estimated at 2,500,000, who fled when the German machine rolled across Belgium and northern France.

A half million fled from Spain when the Spanish republic fell, and a good third of those are still on foreign territory, unable to return.

Virtual forced labor in Germany, recruited in Poland, France, Holland, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Italy, totals almost a million, with not less than another million prisoners of war.

Other wars have not failed to create their rows on rows of dead, their ravaged villages, their ruined farms and cities.

None has ever uprooted and scattered like chaff across a continent these millions of helpless, homeless, and yet generally innocent people.

Fifteen Years to Cork

CALIFORNIA forestry specialists are going forward with placement of 10,000 cork oak seedlings among farmers who will promise to plant 50 trees each, and take care of them. Experiments have shown that the cork will grow well in certain parts of California, and produce bark equal to the Spanish and Portuguese trees.

But it takes 15 years to grow a cork oak to the point where cork may be stripped from it. In order for this plan to have helped to avoid today's shortage of cork, somebody would have to have thought of it 15 years ago and had the courage to go ahead with it. If he had, he would probably have been denounced as a visionary and a fanatic.

Today and its crises force us to strain every eye toward tomorrow.

creased numbers to the free French and the British.

THESE possibly wishful reports of desertion of French forces explain better than anything else can the peculiar war in Syria. The British profess to be fighting to save Syria for the real France. The Germans are trying to make it appear that the French are fighting to save Syria from the clutches of the wicked and grasping British.

Sooner or later these pretenses will be dropped and the fighting will get really tough.

THE Robin Moor incident continues to hold a prominent place in the dispatches. It develops today that the ship's first mate, after the vessel had been stopped, rowed a mile and a half to the waiting submarine and informed its German commander of the Robin Moor's nationality and destination.

That means the sinking was deliberate. THIS is what is at stake in the Robin Moor case: The United States wants Germany to shoot first. What Germany wants, only Hitler knows.

IT looks as if the Germans have shown poor judgment in providing an "incident."

Summer Welles, assistant secretary of state, announces after a careful investigation that the Robin Moor carried no military material of any character. Her cargo, he says, ranged from steel rails to women's hosiery, and her destination port (Capetown, South Africa) is not in any war zone.

The United States will demand not only reparations for the Robin Moor but assurances from the German government that such attacks will not be repeated.

Produce Sales to Army Call for Cooperative Plan

problem of hospitals and schools. Many of the officers in the camp, he said, will bring their families to Medford. This will put a great demand on hospital and school facilities. He expressed possibility that it might be necessary, as has been done elsewhere, to operate the schools in two half-day shifts. He praised the work being done by committees of Medford business men in arranging to handle the situation, and highly complimented the state highway commission for its foresight and spirit of cooperation.

Housing Betterment Needed

Southern Oregon is the most fertile field in the United States for paint and plumbing supply salesmen, in the opinion of Mrs. Hunt, who declared she had found the homes in southern Oregon cities to be badly in need of paint. Calling attention to the overcrowded housing conditions in cities adjacent to army cantonments, she said that few prospective landlords give thought to the need for additional bath-rooms. Workmen occupying rented quarters do not have time to wait for use of a community bathroom, she said, and persons desiring to rent rooms or apartments must take this factor into consideration.

the "shyster" merchants, the open gambling and the vices which spring up around the cantonments. However, she pointed out, Roseburg will probably feel some of the "backwash."

Homelike Welcome Urged

She urged against permitting the thought that the boys in the army camp are in any way different from the boys at home. "These boys," she declared, "are no different than your sons or mine. They are a cross section of young American manhood. They are good and bad, just as our boys at home are good and bad, but like our boys they are mostly good."

Mrs. Hunt urged that wherever possible they be shown the courtesies of home. "You will not have an opportunity, like the people of Medford, to contact a great many of these boys," Mrs. Hunt said, "but doubtless many of them will visit in your city. These boys are lonesome. They are, for the most part, from good homes, and appreciate a chance to visit with you in your home."

Mrs. Hunt particularly commended the Oregon liquor control law, contrasting it with conditions in California, and pointing out that the Oregon system offers far less in the way of temptation.

Yankees' Victory Streak Cuts Down Cleveland's Lead

By JUDSON BAILEY (Associated Press Sports Writer) The New York Yankees are scourging the American league again with a sizzling seven-game winning streak that has the Cleveland Indians trembling on their pedestal.

Yesterday they polished off the Indians for the sixth time in nine meetings this season and reduced the Tribe's margin at the top of the league to two games. They had proved Saturday that Feller was not invincible, and they came right back against Young Bagby and won, 3-2.

The Yanks did all their scoring in the first three frames, Joe DiMaggio providing the climax with his 13th home run to extend his hitting streak to 28 consecutive contests.

Ruffing kept six hits scattered and was not scored upon until Gordon dropped a pop-fly to help the Indians to two unearned runs in the eighth.

Cardinals, Dodgers Split. The Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers, fighting for first place in the National league, divided a doubleheader.

High pitched seven-hit ball and Riggs batted in four runs, three on a ninth-inning homer, as the Dodgers won the opener, 8-1. Then White retaliated with a two-hit mound job to take the nightcap, 3-0.

At Boston the Red Sox swept two games from the Chicago White Sox, 8-6 and 4-4.

The Philadelphia Athletics battered the St. Louis Browns, 10-4, with a 14-hit offensive and an eight-hit pitching job by Babich.

Washington and Detroit divided their bargain bill. Hudson pitched the Senators to a 7-5 triumph in the first contest, a homer by Bruce Campbell and a double by Mullin brought the Tigers a 4-2 victory before darkness halted the nightcap after six innings.

The Cincinnati Reds took a strong hold on third place in the National league by nailing the New York Giants, 5-2 and 6-3.

Riddle, scoring his fifth win without a defeat by holding the Giants to eight hits in the first encounter, would have had a shut-out except for Mel Ott's 16th home run with one on. Walters hurled seven-hit ball in the nightcap.

The Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia Phillies split their twin bill. Passauer pitched a 6-0 shutout for the Cubs in the first game and Root added five scoreless innings in the second before the Phillies blew their top with an eight-run rally started Litwhiler's single and ended with his home run. Result: Phillies, 8-4.

The Boston Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-1, on the five-hit pitching of Posedel.

Sactos Increase League Lead By Double Triumph

(By The Associated Press) Sacramento, winning coast league baseball games with a homogeneity, knocked over Hollywood in two games yesterday, 5 to 4 and 2 to 1, to make a clean sweep of the seven-game series.

The two wins made it ten straight victories for the Senators and put them 14 games ahead of second place San Diego. But other coast league teams have not tossed in the towel, however, and the week-end was marked by the announcement of two shifts in the Seattle roster, in an effort to bolster the Rainiers.

Seattle, in third place with the tiny lead of a half game over San Francisco, has acquired Louis William (Bozey) Berger, veteran 31-year-old shortstop in an outright purchase from the Kansas City Blues.

His signing is expected to result in a deal for Shortstop Bill Schuster, now in his second season with Seattle.

The defending coast league champions also traded Catcher Gilly Campbell for Bob Collins, who has been performing in a similar post for Los Angeles.

San Francisco and Seattle split their doubleheader, the Seals taking the first game, 8 to 5, and losing the second, 6 to 5. San Francisco won the series, four games to three.

Los Angeles won the doubleheader from Portland, 5 to 4 and 2 to 0, although the Beavers outbatted them in both games. The Angels took the series four games to three.

San Diego dropped a doubleheader to Oakland yesterday, 12-2 and 9-6, but managed to nose out the cellar-dwelling Oaks by coping four games of the series to Oakland's three.

Roseburg Golfers Win Over Coquille, 28 to 23

Roseburg Country club's golf team of 17 men was victorious over its Coquille opponents at that place yesterday by a score of 28 to 23. Low point man of the match was Jack Rodgers of Roseburg, with a 67 for 18 holes. Clayton Mast was low for Coquille with 69.

Roseburg Legion Juniors Defeat All-Stars, 10 to 7

By "HAP" APPLIGATE Roseburg's potentially strong Legion Junior baseball team won its second game of the season Sunday, downing a group of former Legion players, 10 to 7.

The Juniors won easily, despite the close score, as the team was weakened in late innings by numerous substitutions. Debernard set the All-Stars down, with one hit and one run in five innings before being replaced by Cummings in the sixth. The Juniors led 10 to 1 at the time the substitution was made. The shift was ordered so that all players on the squad might have an opportunity to get into the game. The All-Stars found Cummings' left-hand delivery to their liking and planted five hits, which, with walks and errors, accounted for six runs in three innings. Main took over the chucking chores in the ninth and retired the All-Stars on seven pitches.

Bill Puckett went the route for the All-Stars, holding the Juniors scoreless for the final three innings after a very shaky start.

Glen Cox, with two triples, was the day's best hitter. Debernard also hit for three bases and White and Shapco each collected two singles.

The team was conducted Sunday by Lloyd Crouch, chairman of the Legion baseball committee, in the absence of Coach Parks. The coach will be here this week, however, to conduct regular practices.

Practice games with teams of neighboring towns are being arranged for the near future.

Legion players participating in the game Sunday were White, Cummings, Debernard, Cox, Main, Baker, Wimberly, Shapco, Stephens, Williams, Rice, Crouch, Loomis and Morgan.

Summary: R H E Juniors —053 029 000—10 11 5 All-Stars —100 001 320— 7 6 4 Debernard, Cummings, Main and White; B. Puckett and Norton.

Conn Picked To Defeat Louis By Superior Speed

By SID FEDER NEW YORK, June 16.—(AP)—For the first time since Joe Louis began to chop down assorted heavyweight stock and carve it into convenient sizes, the folks have changed their tune from "we believe you" to "you gotta show us."

A majority of them still think he's going to belt Billy Conn around here Wednesday night and brush off the 18th challenge to his heavyweight crown.

But as Louis and Conn polished up their shots and their speed today in final brief sparring sessions at their training camps, even some of Joe's sincerest boosters were willing to acknowledge for the first time that he won't have any minutes to waste doing it on this occasion. They know that his best chance of knocking the stuffing out of Conn lies in catching Conn before he's warmed up.

No one knows that better than the Bomber himself.

All his training has been pointed toward a repetition of the fast fox-trot he put in on Max Schmeling in their second fight. He has concentrated all his sparring along one line—rushing his punch-absorbers into a corner and then dealing dynamite off his right arm.

He has told this corner just that. Yet I don't think he'll catch the little man that quickly or with one punch. That's why I pick Conn to win the decision, thus becoming the 16th ruler since Sullivan in the royal heavyweight line.

But although he has slowed 'way down since the night he sent Der Moxie to a hospital in 24 minutes, and his guns no longer pack the shells they once loaded, it is conceivable that Joe may still be red-hot and rarin' for this one effort. He still can hurt any man he hits, but if he lets Conn escape for as much as five rounds, the chances are he can cash in his checks.
