

Cleveland, Cards Stretch Leads In Major Leagues

By JUDSON BAILEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The light hitting Cleveland Indians suddenly have become ferocious at the plate and look capable of gobbling up the lesser lights of the American league in big gulps.

Yesterday they really opened up—getting 17 hits including five home runs and four doubles to overwhelm Philadelphia, 14-2.

This display of fireworks was accompanied by a four-hit pitching performance by Bob Feller, who coasted to his 14th victory of the campaign.

The Indians' first place margin was increased to three full games as the Chicago White Sox trimmed the New York Yankees by one run for the second day in succession, 3-2.

Spud Chandler of the Yanks, who hadn't won a game all year and wanted this one badly to celebrate the birth of his first baby Tuesday, pitched five-hit ball. But the Sox made use of four of these hits to get enough runs to win. Joe DiMaggio hit safely in his 31st consecutive game.

The Detroit Tigers tore into the Boston Red Sox for a 5-2 victory behind the steady, eight-hit hurling of Rowe, who gave up only one extra-base blow, a homer by Jimmie Fox.

The St. Louis Browns squeezed out a 3-2 verdict over the Washington Senators.

Cardinals Stretch Lead.

The St. Louis Cardinals continued their climb in the National league with a 7-3 triumph over the Phillies while the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers were dropping a 5-1 nod to the Chicago Cubs.

The Boston Braves beat the Cincinnati Reds 4-2 with Javery besting Johnny Vander Meer in a pitching duel in which each allowed seven hits.

Baseball's curfew rule caused its first major league tie in a struggle between the New York Giants and Pittsburgh which was interrupted for an hour in order that the fans in Pittsburgh could listen to a broadcast of the heavyweight championship bout of Joe Louis and their hometown hero, Billy Conn.

The game was stopped with the score tied 2-2 in the middle of the fourth inning and although the teams played a total of 11 frames, there never was any more scoring.

Joe Louis Puts Conn Away in Round Thirteen

dark stands. He thought he was "in" and so did an amazed audience.

In the twelfth round, the slim challenger sent Louis reeling against the ropes with a vicious two-fisted attack. Louis looked slow, unable to take advantage of the targets offered him. The more than 55,000 electrified fans were only waiting, tensed, for the final bell of the fight and the announcement that the "winnah and new champion" was Billy Conn. Mistake in 13th Fatal.

Then the 13th round began. Louis came out, looking worried, and Conn rushed to meet him. From the challenger's corner blurted the warning cry: "Move around," as it had come from Conn's manager, Johnny Ray, from the opening bell out. But Billy was heedless. He went tearing to meet Louis.

A left hook caught Billy along side the head and staggered him. He fell into a clinch. Louis, finally aroused, poured everything he had into Conn. Five consecutive rights landed flush on Conn's jaw before he finally crumpled to the canvas. He was down, still trying to struggle to his knees, when the count of 10 came and Referee Eddie Josephs signaled that it was all over.

Then they half-carried the strapping back to his corner, the blood pouring from his nose and from a cut under his eye. He still had a smile on his lips, a kid full of courage and glory. Later he cried in his dressing room as though his heart would break, but the last the crowd saw of him he was holding out his hand in congratulation to the negro who had beat him down.

Seldom has a heavyweight fight crowd seen the scales of victory shift so suddenly. Up to the instant when Louis caught and downed his man, it looked as though Conn had made good his boast and bedazzled the champion, a far bigger man. Louis, for all his 192 pounds and his vaunted punch, had looked like a slothful, disgusted fighter up to the instant when he connected. Conn Early in Distress.

Early in the fight, in the second round, Louis stuffed in and poured punches into Conn's stem-ach. The kid looked in bad shape. The fight-wise ringsiders nudged each other and said it was about over.

But the third round saw Billy open up in spectacular fashion and slap Louis all over the ring. Louis looked a sucker for Conn's left hook. The champion appeared unable to untrack himself. His handlers said later that they were fearful at that stage. Louis, soberly admitted when it ended that Conn had surprised him with his speed and ability to take punishment.

Again in the fifth Louis came alive and belabored Conn's middle, sending the challenger wobbling to his corner when the round closed, but that still didn't daunt Billy. He managed to get through the sixth on even terms, and the seventh began the rally that had the title won for him when he became too careless and confident in the 13th.

Had Title in His Grasp.

Conn won the eighth round and the ninth, lost the tenth, and then spurred to capture the eleventh and twelfth. The roars of the crowd echoed across the nearby Harlem river as the boy who "didn't have a chance" increased his pace to step around Louis and pound the champion from every angle.

Louis up to this point had not reached Conn with a single right to the head. Billy had reason to feel confident. He had caught the over-trained champion with a flurry in the 12th that had sent Louis, befuddled, into the ropes. He had made a terrific fight of every second of the way. He had the championship in his right fist.

And then it happened to him. He became in an instant only the 18th victim of Joe Louis since the big negro won the title.

CONN'S INVALID MOTHER PLUCKY IN SON'S DEFEAT

PITTSBURGH, June 19.—(AP)—The mother of Billy Conn can take it on the chin with a smile as well as her big laughing boy.

Mrs. Margaret Conn, only 41 but stricken with a usually fatal malady, showed her pluck last night when a sister came upstairs to her bedroom to tell her of Conn's knockout by Joe Louis in the unlucky 13th round in New York.

"That's all right, Rose," whispered the mother. "I know. I'm proud of Billy."

She had been too ill to have a radio in her darkened bedroom where a nurse sat by her side.

Mary Jane Conn, 20-year-old "boss" of the house since her mother has been in bed, collapsed in her chair as the referee was counting out her brother. Then she sobbed, as did some of the other cousins and aunts present, but not 11-year-old red-haired Peggy Ann Conn, who piped:

"If he only could have gotten up. But he'll get another match and he'll beat that Joe Louis then. I'll bet you."

Billy telephoned home after the fight, as he has been doing daily from his training camp. He promised again to get "mom" the title "next time."

BROOKVILLE, Pa., June 19.—(AP)—Walter Evans, Jefferson county register, reported a marriage license was issued today to Billy Conn and Mary Louis Smith, Pittsburgh model.

Oakland Jumps Out of Cellar By Blanking Sactos

(By the Associated Press)

The erratic Oakland Aorns, who find the going tough against second division teams, had an easy time walloping the Sacramento Senators, coast league leaders, by a 6 to 0 score last night.

The Oaks proved their 7 to 1 win the previous night was no fluke by blanking the powerful Senators—the second shutout this season recorded against Sacramento.

The victory moved Oakland from its cellar birth past Portland and Hollywood to sixth place and cut down Sacramento's league lead to 12 games.

Behind the five-hit pitching of Salvason, the Oaks had no trouble in taking the game.

Eleven pitchers saw service in a weird game between Hollywood and San Diego, with San Diego winning 15 to 12 after a three-hour orgy in which a total of 34 hits were amassed by the two teams.

A see-saw game most of the way, at Portland, with the lead changing eight times, ended when San Francisco scored two runs in the ninth and defeated Portland 6 to 5.

RED & WHITE FOODS ARE LABORATORY TESTED

What does "laboratory testing" mean? It means that every Red & White food product is given an exhaustive test for purity. If it meets certain high standards established by the organization it is placed under the Red & White label. Besides a "laboratory test" each item is given a "kitchen test." It must combine well with other ingredients—it must stand the actual "cooking" and "eating" test: So—buy with confidence—learn to depend upon the name Red & White for quality!
