

Cardinals Nose Out Phillies In 11-Inning Battle

By JUDSON BAILEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The St. Louis Cardinals, who have had more close contests and more extra-inning games this season than any other team in their league, snatched a 7-6 triumph away from the Philadelphia Phillies in 11 innings yesterday in their latest exploit.

At the end of five frames the Redbirds were trailing, 5-2, and when they came to bat in the last of the ninth they still were behind, 6-5. But they worked Padgett around to third base and he scored on a long fly to tie the score. Then in the 11th Crespi singled with the bases loaded for the winning run.

This kept St. Louis three games ahead of the Dodgers, who unleashed a 15-hit assault on de Passeau and Page to whip the Chicago Cubs, 9-4. Higbe kept nine hits scattered in gaining his eighth win for Brooklyn and had no particular trouble with anyone except Dahlgren, who hit two home runs.

In the only other National league game the New York Giants overpowered the Pittsburgh Pirates, 9-6.

The Cleveland Indians, who walloped the Philadelphia Athletics with a 17-hit bombardment Wednesday, stepped up their attack to 19 hits yesterday and crushed the A's, 12-1.

The victory preserved Cleveland's three-game lead over the New York Yankees, who trounced the Chicago White Sox, 7-2. Joe DiMaggio extended his spectacular hitting streak to 32 consecutive games with a perfect day at bat—a home run, two singles and a walk—and Keller smacked his third homer in three days with the bases filled in the fourth inning.

The Boston Red Sox downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-4, in a free-hitting game.

The Washington Senators slaughtered the St. Louis Browns, 12-0, with a 17-hit raid on three pitchers, and a three-hit performance by Leonard.

Seattle Defeats L. A. In Twin Bill

(By the Associated Press)
Seattle's erstwhile floundering defending Coast league champions finally have found a team they can beat in their home park. The Rainiers slapped their third straight defeat on Los Angeles by taking both ends of a doubleheader last night by 4 to 1 scores.

Ned Stickle, former Whitman college ace who played last year with Spokane, was the hitting star for Seattle. He got four singles, a triple, a base on balls and four runs in the two games to widen his lead as the team's top hitter. The rookie has clinched the Seattle shortstop spot from the veteran Bill Schuster.

A home run by Ferris Fain with one on in the eighth broke a 1 to 1 tie and gave San Francisco a 3 to 1 win over Portland.

Sacramento, standing at the top of the coast league, squeezed by seventh-place Oakland by a 7 to 5 score last night with the Oaks closing in fast in the last two innings.

Hollywood broke its ten-game losing streak by defeating San Diego 8 to 4.

Kiwanis International Elects News Officers

ATLANTA, June 20. (AP)—Charles S. Donley, 55, Pittsburgh transportation consultant, is the newly-elected president of Kiwanis International. Cleveland was selected as the 1942 convention city.

Dr. Charles B. Holman of St. Louis, and Fred G. McAlister, London, Ont., Canada, were elected vice-presidents and Donald B. Rice of Oakland, Calif., treasurer.

Donley has been a Kiwanian since 1923. He served five years on the international board of trustees, from 1935 to 1939, and was international vice-president for the United States in 1939-40.

Legion Juniors to Battle Melrose in Double Header

A double header baseball bill will be offered local fans Sunday when the Roseburg American Legion Juniors appear in games against a strong Melrose team at Finlay field. The games will be the first appearance of the Juniors under the direction of their new coach, Howard Parks. Mr. Parks, athletic coach at Yoncalla, who led the Yoncalla Eagles to the high school baseball championship for Douglas county, has been employed by the local school board to direct the recreational program for Roseburg during the summer months.

The games Sunday will be seven-inning affairs with the first contest starting at 1:30 o'clock.

The Juniors have had two good practices this week, although the attendance was not as great as desired. Among the players turning out so far are Wimberly, Loomis, Crouch, Art Stephens and Cummings, outfielders; Baker, Sharp, Williams, Anderson and Cox, infielders; White and Beryl Stephens, catchers; Deall boys between the ages of 12 and 14 years interested in midget baseball or softball are invited to be at Finlay field at 10:30 Monday, at which time groups will be organized according to age and size for future practice sessions. Bernardi and Main, pitchers.

DeBernardi and Main are expected to be on the mound for Roseburg in the two games Sunday. All players turning out will be given an opportunity to play, Coach Parks reports.

Joe Louis' Next Opponent Will Be Nova in September

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, June 20. (AP)—Barring the unforeseen, Joe Louis will make the next defense of his heavyweight championship here in September against Lou Nova, the California husky who recently forced Max Baer to quit for the second time.

One thing is certain: Louis intends to loaf with all his might during the next two months. His 13th-round victory over Billy Conn Wednesday night left him worn out and tired of fighting. The champ has been in almost constant training for the past seven months.

"Joe admits he made an almost fatal mistake in not laying off training for a couple of days last week like his trainer wanted him to," said Julian Black, a co-manager. "Joe says he knows now how he'll feel when he loses the title. He still can't quit talking about how a little fellow like Conn can take punishment."

It was agreed generally that Ray Carlen, manager of Conn, had proved himself almost as great a hero as his fighter by refusing to lay the blame on Billy for trying to slug with Louis and getting knocked out when sensible discretion would have won the title.

"It was what I wanted him to do," Johnny insisted stoutly. "I wouldn't have wanted him to win dancing around. It would have been tinsel. I told him to fight the way he wanted." Everybody within earshot knew Johnny was lying gallantly; that he had implored his hot-headed fighter to play it smart right to the end, but that Conn was flushed with battle and wouldn't listen.

JOHN, COME HOME...

Sorry I lost temper. Had looked forward all week to drive in country. Squeaks, rattles, terrible way car performed was more than I could stand. But have found remedy in our own neighborhood. John, all we have to do is call Union Oil station for Stop-Wear Lubrication, which is guaranteed against faulty chassis lubrication for 1000 miles. And listen, John: One, you SEE difference in way car looks—tires, running boards dressed—interior cleaned out, glass gleaming. Two, you HEAR difference in quiet operation. Three, you FEEL difference in way car shifts, steers, rides. Guarantee of 1000 miles of chassis lubrication given with each Stop-Wear job. Apply immediately. If desired, cars picked up and returned, no extra cost. But ONLY Union Oil stations in neighborhood have Stop-Wear Lubrication. John, forgive and return. Margaret.

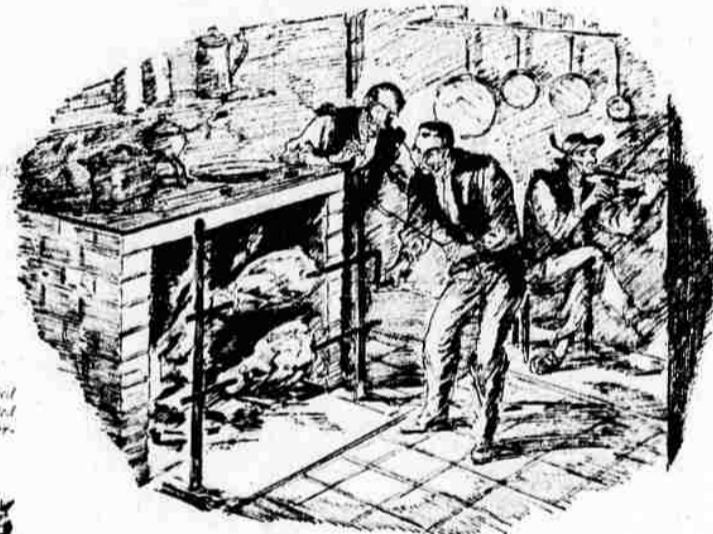

Do you recall the famous beer brewed in old-time PILSEN?

There was no mistaking beer brewed in the pleasure-loving City of Pilsen. It had a most brilliant clarity—a liveliness that came from long-lasting chains of tiny bubbles darting upward in your glass.

It possessed a flavor neither strong, bitter nor sweet. A light, mellow beer taste—marvelously satisfying.

A new appetizing smack that refreshed the drinker as no beer had done before.

For many centuries, the City of Pilsen was distinguished for a kind of beer brewed there. Brilliant, light-colored Pilsner was exported in all the world and was generally acknowledged supreme among fine beers.

There is in America today a beer brewed in the true Pilsner tradition. Carefully, painstakingly brewed.

This beer, we are bold to say, is a good beer... we think it is the match of imported. On that highest standard we ask you now to come taste it—to judge it at our risk.

Labeled Brown Derby Pilsner, this beer is made to our exclusive Pilsner formula and checked by our own quality control.

As in imported Pilsner, costly malt goes into it, and hops chosen for delicacy of flavor.

Like imported Pilsner, too, this is beer that goes better however you choose to drink it—with or without food.

By "at our risk" we mean this: Take home several bottles of Brown Derby Pilsner. Pour out a cold, inviting glassful. And be generous with your first taste... take a hearty, mouth-filling draught... let your tongue explore that refreshing flavor. Unless you find Brown Derby Pilsner all we claim here—unless it satisfies you in every way—return just the empty bottles to the store where you bought it and they will refund your full purchase price.
