MRS. FRANK DOUGLAS IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF GARDEN VALLEY CLUB

The Garden Valley Women's club met at the clubhouse Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Douglas as hostess. Bouquets of roses, sweetpeas and other summer flowers were attractively arranged about the rooms.

A very interesting report of the 4-H club activities was received from Hyle Hughes, who was sent by the Garden Valley Women's club to the 4-H summer school this year at Corvallis.

The annual election of club officers for the ensuing year was held and is as follows: President, Mrs. Frank Douglas; vice-president, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Jr.; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Clem Schneider; press correspondent, Mrs. R. S. Hutton, and member of the executive committee, Mrs. R. A. Calhoun.

At the tea hour Mrs. Douglas served lovely refreshments to Mrs. W. D. Hess, Mrs. G. C. Bailey, Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, Mrs. Harvey Ewens, Mrs. R. S. Hutton, Mrs. O. M. Michel, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Jr., Mrs. A. N. Schneider, Mrs. Clem Schneider, Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Mrs. Jake Thornburg, Mrs. William Vaughn and Mrs. T. M. Winniford and daughter, Emma Leah.

The next meeting date has been changed from the regular Thursday meeting to Wednesday, July 2, to be held at the clubhouse with Mrs. Harvey Ewens as hostess.

IOWA VISITORS ARE ENTERTAINED AT BELLOWS HOME TUESDAY

The Springborn Educational Tour party of twenty-two and the bus driver were guests of honor at a charming informal evening party Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellows and the latter's mother, Mrs. C. E. Jones.

The party is enjoying a 5600 mile tour taking 22 days and stopping at Rocky mountain national park, Yosemite, Mt. Rainier and Yellowstone national parks and the Black hills and the Rushmore state parks. Several members of the touring party are relatives and friends of Mrs. C. E. Jones, who entertained her last year, when she was a visitor in their home-town of Muscatine, Iowa.

The Springborn Educational Tour makes a tour every year to various parts of interest in the United States and has also enjoyed several cruises. While in Roseburg the members of the party were especially enthusiastic over the numerous flowers in bloom and were impressed by the beauty of articles made from Myrtlewood. The bus left Roseburg Wednesday for the north.

Tuesday evening was enjoyed informally in visiting at the Bellows home and in a visit to the Miss Myrtlewood shop. Later in the evening Mrs. Bellows and Mrs. Jones served lovely refreshments.

MISS ELEANOR ENTLER COMPLIMENTED AT CHARMING PARTY

Miss Dorothy Germond entertained at a very charming 7:30 o'clock dessert supper in compliment to Miss Eleanor Entler Wednesday evening at the Germond home on East Douglas street. A white bowl of pink and blue larkspur and pink taplers graced the beautifully appointed table.

CHARMING RECITAL IS GIVEN AT STRONG HOME ON TUESDAY EVENING

A very delightful recital was given last Tuesday evening by Lou Helen Strange, pianist, pupil of Gladys H. Strong and Maurice Holmes, contralto, pupil of Mrs. Charles Brand. The recital was given at Miss Strong's home. A large group of friends attended the recital and were most appreciative of the lovely program given by these young students.

Lou Helen Strange is the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Strange. She has shown musical talent since she was quite young and has studied with Miss Strong since she was a small child. She played with brilliancy having very clear and pleasing tone. Her numbers were well chosen from the best piano literature and yet easily within her grasp. She interpreted them interestingly and played with surprising maturity.

Maurice Holmes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Holmes of Lookingglass. She has a lovely contralto voice and has been a popular singer on many programs given the last few months. She is well poised and sings with ease. She interpreted her songs well expressing the mood of various types artistically. Miss Strong was her accompanist.

At the close of the program an informal reception was held honoring Miss Strange and Miss Holmes. Miss Strong was assisted in serving by Mrs. Roseco Marsters, Mrs. Arthur Carnes, Mrs. E. A. Britton, Mrs. Charles Brand and Miss Helen Cooney. The program included the following:

Sonata in C major, Mozart, Allegro-Andante-Rondo, Lou Helen Strange.

La Serenata, Tosti; Slumber Song, Gretchenhoff; My Love Is a Fisherman, Lily Strickland, Maurice Holmes.

A Deserted Farm, MacDowell; Souvenir, Karganoff; Snowfall, Torjussen, Lou Helen Strange; Serenade, Schubert; In the Garden of Tomorrow, Deppen; Mammy's Song, Ware; The Big Brown Bear, Mana-Zucca, Maurice Holmes.

Little Shepherd, Debussy; Cap and Bells, Dent Mowrey; Air de Ballet, Chaminade; Lou Helen Strange.

Miss Strong, accompanist.
