CAMP FIRE GIRLS TO ENJOY CAMP JULY 6-13 AT WOLF CREEK CAMP

July 6 to 13 inclusive will be the annual Camp Fire Girls summer camp dates to be held this year at the Boy Scout Wolf Creek camp, which is one of the most beautiful camp sites in the state. Facilities at the camp have been greatly increased during the last year and the camp will be one of the most comfortable, as well as beautiful, obtainable in this part of the county.

The Roseburg Camp Fire council, headed by Mrs. T. G. Watson, president, met last night to complete plans for the Camp Fire camp, which promises to be one of the most interesting camps ever held here.

Mrs. Sidney Domenico, who for many years has been active in Roseburg Camp Fire activities and is one of the guardians here, will act as camp director for this year. She will be aided by Miss Jean Strawn and Miss Doris Shoemaker, who will teach crafts. Miss Strawn and Miss Shoemaker are both former outstanding Camp Fire girls in this county. Miss Strawn has been attending Sacramento Junior college and is home for the summer and Miss Shoemaker is a student at University of Oregon and is spending her summer vacation here.

Camp activities will be of special interest this year and will include an overnight hike; a trip to Red butte and a special hike for the older girls. Evening programs around the camp fire have been planned by the counselors to take place every evening during the camp week.

Every girl registering for camp has been requested to have her physical examination and six dollar camp fee registered at the chamber of commerce office not later than July 1 or July 2.

TRUEBLOODS ARRIVE FOR SUMMER VACATION

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Graham Trueblood and their two daughters, Anne and Susan, arrived in Roseburg last Saturday from their home in Stockton, California, where Dr. Trueblood is a member of the English faculty of the Stockton Junior college.

Dr. Trueblood, the son of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Trueblood of Drain, will attend the summer session of the University of Oregon at Eugene. Mrs. Trueblood, formerly Helen Churchill of this city, and her two daughters expect to visit with Mrs. Trueblood's mother, Mrs. F. H. Churchill, as well as with Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Trueblood of Drain.

Dr. Trueblood and his family stopped at Palo Alto en route from Stockton to Roseburg where

Dr. Trueblood had the honor of representing Duke university on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of Stanford university and the dedication of the Hoover Memorial Library building. Dr. Trueblood, who received both the A. M. and Ph. D. degrees from Duke university was asked by President Robert L. Flowers of Duke university to represent him and the university at the academic festival at Stanford university at which Herbert Hoover was the honored guest.

The Truebloods were the house guests at Stanford of Dr. Trueblood's cousin, Dean D. Elton Trueblood, chaplain of the Stanford Memorial chapel and professor of the philosophy of religion. The Truebloods visited also with the Benjamin F. Cutlers of Palo Alto and the Gene Cutlers of St. Francis Wood, San Francisco.

RIVERSDALE GRANGE MEETS ON FRIDAY

Riversdale grange met Friday night at the hall to honor members having birthdays the last three months at a delightful six-thirty o'clock potluck supper. W. O. Patterson, master, presided over the business session.

Eleven visitors from Elkhead grange were guests. A flag program was presented by the lecturer and plans were outlined for a picnic to be held at Hutton's grove on July 4.
