American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
Word has just been received from Ruth Ann Ruhl at Girls' State, held at Silver Creek Falls, out of Salem. Plans, she says, are much better organized than last year. This is the second year of Girls' State. The leaders have had time to determine better methods. Four girls from Roseburg, Ruth Ann Ruhl, Ethel Van Voorst, Wilma Pounds and Gertrude Pierce, are in attendance this year. Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Van Voorst took the girls to camp Sunday.

These girls, like the Boys' Staters, elect a governor, mayor, and every city and county officer found in our government. They make and enact bills. Law enforcement is practiced. Indeed, when a girl returns she has not only a lovely vacation but has a practical working knowledge of our governmental machinery. State Senator Dorothy McCullough Lee is again heading the camp, with Ruby Bergsve chairman for the department.

Over the week-end Roseburg unit was most pleased to have the department president, Mrs. Hubert Goode, and a large contingent from Portland in attendance at the dance held at the facility Friday night. With Mrs. Goode were Mrs. F. J. M. Ernest, Mrs. Otha Baker, Mrs. Ellis Jordan, Mrs. Joe Merryman, Mrs. John J. Rottle and Mrs. Dan Bjornevik all of the Multnomah inter-unit council from Portland. This was a long trip to make and indeed those who have enjoyed the social occasions at the facility during the past few years are most happy to welcome those from out of town. Corvallis will be hostess there this week. The American Legion auxiliary does not forget.

One of the finest dance orchestras played at the facility Friday. The Mountain Jennies of Portland made the 200-mile trip here and back that night to play for the pleasure of the men. Grace Morgan with her "talking" fiddle, with Cora Colweger at the piano and Margery McGregor and Ruth Coles playing the sax made merriest aplenty. The women were dressed as mountain folk and many a laugh was heard over their antics. Everyone pronounced it the most "fun we've had in a long time." Indeed we thank Portland for obtaining this fine talent and for the visitors who came so far to bring an evening's entertainment to the men.

Mrs. William Horsfall of Marshfield was also a Roseburg visitor over the week-end. Past President Mrs. Victor Micelli and her mother, Mrs. Annie Russell, took Mrs. Horsfall to Lakeview, returning Sunday.

Umpqua unit will have a meeting this week to plan for the convention and make reservations. A most entertaining stunt has been planned for stunt night. Listen to the next radio program July 1st at 5:00 o'clock.
