

Federal Employees Name New Officer, Plan Annual Picnic

Mrs. Nina Simpson was appointed last night as secretary-treasurer of local, No. 459, National Federation of Federal Employees, succeeding Miss Alice Benneberger. The appointment was made by President Bob Harvie, after Miss Benneberger had resigned because of her recent election to the office of secretary-treasurer of the state federation of federal employees.

The meeting of the Roseburg local of federal employees was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Smith, where 68 members were in attendance.

Plans were discussed for an annual picnic to be held July 13 for all employees and their families. The location and program details were placed in the hands of committees.

Employees were requested to join in writing congressmen in support of the salary advancement bill now before congress.

Plans for the next regular meeting were placed in the hands of a committee headed by Arthur Midland.

Three employees, Robert Burton and Fred Dillard of the veterans facility, and Mrs. Matilda Hildebrand of the farm security office, were elected into membership in the local.

The business meeting was followed by a wienner roast, arranged by a committee headed by Leo B. Scott.
