N. OF W. HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

Lilac Circle No. 49, Neighbors of Woodcraft, had a fine attendance Monday evening at the regular meeting and the members were pleased to greet Neighbor Alice E. Fickle, one of the few living charter members of the Circle.

The beautiful initiation ceremony was held and Mrs. Inga High, Lotte Alta Smith and Florence Sieve were received into membership. Reports on the district convention were made by Neighbor Mary McCuan, Hattie Neal, Iva Taylor, Winnie Hawn and Laura Houshelt. Lilac Circle especially honored Neighbor Lora Darby, who has now completed her term as guardian for district 12 and was the recipient of many honors at the district meeting held recently in Cottage Grove.

Neighbor Stearns, clerk of Oakland circle, presented the grand-guardian's album for the signature of Lilac circle members. The album was beautifully illustrated with pictures and clippings and now goes on to Port Orford. It has been traveling for several years and when completed will have covered eleven states.

Guardian Neighbor Ethel Beaver, who has been very ill was reported to be improving slowly. The evening closed with an interesting discussion on "Fraternal Insurance Societies and Their Relation to the American Way" by Ralph L. Russell.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS HAS MEETING

The Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church held their last meeting until the fall months in the form of a pot-luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. G. McQueen. At this time Mrs. C. Gorthy, who will leave for Hawaii in August, was honored with a surprise handkerchief shower. During the business meeting, plans for the annual mission festival were made. Those enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. McQueen included Rev. and Mrs. Sylwester, Miss Vera Goetz, Mrs. R. Kaine, Mrs. C. Gorthy, Miss A. Meusch, Mrs. A. Schlick, Mrs. E. Voigt, Mrs. W. Ackley, Mrs. A. Long, Mrs. P. Siemann, Mrs. R. Hebard, Mrs. V. Andraieff, Mrs. Stenjen, Mrs. J. Feldkamp, Mrs. E. Breinkmeyer and Miss Mary Fretwell.

BIRTHDAY PARTY IS ENJOYED AT DAVIS HOME ON MONDAY

Mrs. Lillian C. Davis, Genevieve Simmons, Cora Dourte and Virginia Scott were honored at a delightful birthday party given by Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War Monday at the Davis home on South Main street. Gifts were presented to the four guests of honor and the evening was spent in visiting, after which a beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut and refreshments were served to Lillian Davis, Genevieve Simmons, Cora Dourte, Virginia Scott, Clarice Benedict, Mae Sebring, Luella Johnson, Virginia Cyrus, Daisy Barnett, Eva Ware, Garlandine Kimball, and son, Jerry, Anna Carson, Edna Watkins, Zelma Sands, Emma Sprague, Ruth Plumer and L. C. Davis.

ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB INVITED TO SAAR HOME NEXT WEDNESDAY, JULY 2

The Bellview club has issued a most cordial invitation to the Roseburg Woman's club members to enjoy an afternoon picnic at two o'clock next Wednesday, July 2nd, at the attractive A. F. Saar home on Deer creek. Members having cars are asked to meet at the clubhouse at 1:45 o'clock and furnish the transportation to the Saar home. Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president of the Woman's club, has requested as many members to attend as possible.

REBEKAH LODGE HAS INTERESTING MEETING

Roseburg Rebekah Lodge No. 41 held an interesting meeting Tuesday night at the I. O. O. F. hall with Hallie Willits, noble grand, presiding. The degree work was exemplified for two candidates, Vivian Wand and Zella Brooks. Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the banquet room at long tables beautifully decorated with baskets of summer flowers. The next meeting will be held July 8 at the hall, at which time the Rebekah and Philetarian lodge No. 8 will hold joint installation of officers.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

Annual Summer Camp. Roseburg Camp Fire Girls are becoming enthusiastic over the prospects of an unusually interesting 1941 camp to be held July 6 to 13 inclusive at the Boy Scout Wolf creek camp.

Mrs. Sidney Domenico will be camp director and will be very capably assisted by Miss Jean Strawn, Sacramento Junior college student and Miss Doris Shoemaker, University of Oregon student. Some very special features have been planned for this year's camp which promises to be of unusual interest to all Camp Fire Girls. The Wolf creek camp provides an ideal setting for a summer camp and the activities during the week will provide entertainment and educational advantages to the girls. Six dollars will be charged for each Camp Fire Girl attending the camp. Physical examinations for camp must be registered at the chamber of commerce office by July 1 or 2.

Pottawatomie. The Pottawatomie Camp Fire group met at the Camp Fire rooms Monday night and voted to hold social meetings during the summer months. The next meeting will be at the rooms Monday night, June 30 at 8 o'clock.

The meeting closed with the Camp Fire song. Those present were Shirley Matthews, Donna

Goes to Tacoma—Mrs. Ray Hampton and children, Merle and Avis, of this city, have left for Tacoma, Wash., where Mrs. Hampton's mother, Mrs. Lena Close, is convalescing from a recent major operation. Mr. Hampton accompanied his family as far north as Portland, then returned here to resume his duties with the forest service.

Welfare Shop to Be Open—The last day for the American Legion auxiliary welfare shop to be open this season will be tomorrow, June 28. The shop has been sponsored by the finance committee during the last nine months and the proceeds of the rummage sales have gone to the child welfare department of the auxiliary. Mrs. H. T. Hansen is chairman of the shop. Articles on sale have been donated by members of the auxiliary and friends interested in the project. The shop is located in the former Maddox grocery location on Jackson street.

New York Visitors Here—Mr. and Mrs. David Levine, of New York City, are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan J. Reich in Laurelwood. Mr. Levine, a former co-worker with Mr. Reich at the Bellevue hospital in New York, is now on his way to Boise, Idaho, where he has been appointed to the medical staff at the veterans facility. Mr. Reich is a member of the medical staff at the facility here. In the absence of Mrs. Reich, who, with her baby daughter, Evelyn, is visiting her parents in Brooklyn, New York, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Grossman are assisting Mr. Reich in entertaining the eastern visitors.

WOOL
BOSTON, June 27.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"The attention of the wool trade has been centered this week on the opening of bids in Philadelphia by the army quartermaster on some 19,000,000 odd yards of military fabrics and 1,500,000 blankets. Prices named on these goods averaged about the same as the last big opening of such fabrics in March and distribution was largely among the same mills.

"Business on Summer street this week has been meagre in worsted wools and only fair on woolen descriptions, with prices firmly maintained on all descriptions. "In the west, buying has been somewhat keener in Texas, Wyoming, Montana and Utah with prices firmly maintained. "Foreign markets report little men. English mills are promised larger rations of wool for civilian uses.

"Mohair is quiet but firm."
