Give Now For U. S. O.

SEVERAL Douglas county communities have responded with full quota contributions in the drive for funds for United Service Organizations (U. S. O.)

There is an illness suffered by many young men who enter the ranks of the army. It is to combat this that the money referred to here will be raised.

They chose well who named a certain malady "homesickness." It is a sickness. Many a young man, leaving his home and the friendly surroundings of his native community for the first time when he enters the army, is really sick with the sense of separation.

They don't die of it, these soldiers, nor anybody else, except in fiction. But they suffer, and there is nothing unmanly in that suffering.

One of the ways to alleviate it, and to cure the disease, is providing places where the soldier and sailor can go when he is off duty—a place where he can have clean amusement, decent surroundings, little facilities for writing home, or reading; where he can get sympathetic advice or religious consolation when he needs them.

That, roughly, is the purpose of the drive of the United Service Organizations to raise an initial $10,765,000 for camp service clubs. These centers, operated by six national voluntary welfare organizations all experienced in such work, will be off military reservations, giving the men a chance to relax once in a while while outside military supervision. The army itself provides libraries, movies, and post exchanges, but a fellow who is under military supervision 21 hours a day likes to "get out from under" it at times.

Plenty of private persons and organizations realize that, and are always ready to put diversion of a sort at the disposal of the soldier and sailor, especially on pay day. Much of this sort of diversion is had in itself and offered with sheer exploitive intent.

There is only one way to beat that game and protect the welfare of American soldiers and sailors. That is to offer something better.

The USO proposes to do it, and its fund drive is an opportunity for every man and woman to do something very concrete and very necessary to advance the country's defense.

The name is appropriate. It is "United," joining in one effort the work of many organizations. It has the single purpose of "Service" to men of the armed forces. And "Organization" is its keynote in a world in which only organized effort wins.

If you have not made a contribution to this fund, do so at once. Any sum large or small is acceptable. Walter Fisher is chairman of the county drive.

Those who wish to volunteer their subscriptions, without waiting for a solicitor to call, may leave them at Fisher's store or the office of the Roseburg chamber of commerce. Let's finish up this drive now and turn in a full quota.

man attack and won a victory on the Prut river (Rumania) front."

CAVALRY was once a great military arm in those areas of the world.

It was the Scythian horsemen (ancestors of the modern Russians) who some 25 centuries ago defeated, discouraged and turned back (not far from the Prut river, incidentally) the vast army of Darius the Mede.

For countless generations, cavalry was the deciding factor in most of the fighting in these great plains. The day of cavalry is pretty well over.

THE Scythians led Darius on and on, refusing pitched battle but hanging on his flanks, striking and fleeing, leading him ever farther and farther into the unknown vastness until finally, in stark terror of the immensity of the land he had invaded, he sacrificed his sick and wounded after telling them he intended to attack the Scythians at nightfall, left his fires burning to deceive the enemy and with the pick of his troops stole out of his camp in the darkness and fled headlong back to the Hellespont (now the Dardanelles.)

It is this same strategy of fighting and fleeing and leading the enemy on and on into a land whose huge expanses have frightened and ultimately exhausted invaders since the earliest times of which we have any record that is doubtless proposed by Stalin and his generals.

Whether it can be got away with AGAIN remains to be seen.

Dodgers, Cardinals Tie for Lead Of National League

(By The Associated Press) The Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals are in an exact tie for the National league lead today, and apparently they are going to keep right on fighting each other until the end of September.

The Dodgers pulled into a tie last night by crushing the Boston Braves, 11-2, while all other teams in the league were idle.

The Dodgers made the Braves their stepping stone to the top. Wyatt pitched five-hit ball for his 11th victory.

The New York Yankees held on to their slim percentage lead in the American league by humbling the St. Louis Browns 4-1 with a spectacular one-hit pitching performance by Russo.

The young southpaw was parted from a no-hit game in the seventh inning when McQuinn smacked a homer. But he faced only 27 other batters, and let no other Brownie get past first base.

Joe DiMaggio doubled on his last time at bat to run his hitting streak to 38 consecutive games; and Henrich homered to extend the club's record string of four-baggers to 35 in 21 straight games.

The Cleveland Indians rallied for six runs in the seventh inning to beat the Boston Red Sox 11-8 and prevent the Yanks from increasing their margin. Feller was shelled for 11 of Boston's 12 hits and gave the Sox a 5-1 advantage in the first three innings.

He eventually had to be relieved but received credit for his 16th triumph.

The Chicago White Sox and Washington Senators, who had battled 13 innings Wednesday, struggled through 16 innings yesterday until Washington finally edged out a 3-2 decision.

The Philadelphia Athletics took an 8 to 4 victory over the Detroit Tigers. Bob Johnson got his 15th and 16th homers of the season.

Defense Quiz

Q. What is the reason for buying a Defense Bond? A. To keep America free. To show your faith and pride in your country. To warn foreign dictators that the United States is the strongest country in the world.

Q. But if I have not enough money to buy a Defense Bond, what can I do? A. Buy Defense Postal Stamps, on sale almost everywhere. Your post office, bank, department store or druggist has them, or can get them for you, at 10 cents upward. Save enough Stamps to exchange for a Defense Bond.

Note: To purchase Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office or bank, or write for information to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

dence in Douglas county, and will operate a clearing house where he can list timber for sale and arrange sales with buyers. The greatly increased demand for timber in Douglas county already has resulted in several fine sales of privately owned timber lands, he reports.

The mill recently purchased by Mr. Campbell has been enlarged and is equipped to cut 80,000 board feet daily on a two shift basis. Mr. Cooper is buying timber for the mill. He is planning a trip to Chicago in the near future to complete negotiations on a deal now pending.

Sacs Lose 3rd In Row to Hollywood

(By The Associated Press) Sacramento's plunge from the Coast league baseball pinnacle is gathering momentum—and so is Seattle's belated winning streak.

For the third straight time, the Solons bowed to Hollywood's second division Stars last night, losing 10-9. Meanwhile, second-place Seattle took a 6-1 decision from San Francisco to climb to within 111 games of the lead—a long way except for a hot club.

The staggering Sacs used four pitchers in a desperate attempt to overcome Hollywood's impressive lead, but fell one run short in a ninth inning rally. Hollywood raced to a four run lead in the first inning and had the game won by the sixth.

Seattle took its victory with former major leaguer Sylvester Johnson hurling eight-hit ball and driving in three runs—one with a triple and two with a single in the four-run sixth inning.

Oakland's surprising Aacorns ran up their third consecutive win over third-place San Diego, by an 8-5 score. The loss dropped San Diego a game and a half behind Seattle.

Moore's tenth-inning single, driving in Stamper, gave Los Angeles a 2-1 victory over Portland. It was the Angels' second straight ten-stanza, one-run-margin win over the Beavers.

Here on Business — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Medley and J. A. Leathwood, of Oakland, were visitors in this city yesterday.

Sunday at the Churches

DAILY DEVOTIONS DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

The human mind should not be startled when the statement is made that there is power in goodness. The common theory that goodness is weakness, and subject to imposition, and at the mercy of ruthlessness and trickery, is not taught in the Bible. In truth God is the only power there is and goodness is more powerful than evil. Therefore goodness based on a clear understanding of God's nature is invincible. The great need is a clear understanding of God. It is seldom that a principle is equally powerful and beautiful. That which is powerful is often harsh and repulsive, that which is beautiful is often weak and insipid, but love is the most powerful and beautiful principle that pervades the universe of God or burns in the bosom of man. St. Paul says, "Though I speak with the tongues of men or of angels and have not this love, I am but sounding brass and tinkling cymbals." The secret of it is, that love is backed by a great principle, that great principle is God. As we learn to know God we learn to love. "O love that will not let me go. I rest my weary soul in thee. I give thee back the life I owe that in thine ocean depths its flow. May richer fuller be." This is the perfect love which casteth out all fear. Amen.
