Announces Marriage At Party

Mrs. Albert C. Miller, nee Adah Marie Ruhl

Coming as a complete surprise to her many Roseburg friends was the announcement party given by Miss Ila Laubach Tuesday evening at her home on South Stephens street, at which time the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crayton Miller (Adah Marie Ruhl) was cleverly told by presenting photostatic copies of the marriage license to each guest.

Miss Laubach served a charming seven o'clock dinner at a table covered with a beautiful cloth and centered with a white wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, and encircled by white lilies. At each end of the table were small white bows of tiny white blossoms.

The marriage of Adah Marie Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ruhl, of Roseburg, and Albert C. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller, of Porterville, Calif., took place June 17th, at 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, where the Rev. Mr. Harvey, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony. The bride was charming in a navy blue silk dress with matching accessories and she wore a corsage of gardenias and red rosebuds. The bridegroom's sister, Miss Dorothy Miller, attended the bride.

The announcement party at the Laubach home was held one week to the day from the wedding date and seventeen friends of the bride were invited to carry out the number 17, which was the date of the wedding.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Albert C. Miller, guest of honor, Mrs. L. W. Ruhl, mother of the bride; Miss Gay Bubar, Miss Frances Wimberly, Miss Kathryn Busenbark, Miss Eugenia Virden, of Corvallis, Miss Bettyjane Dixon, Miss Frances Metzger, Miss Annabelle Berg, Miss Mary Jo Parkinson, Miss Dorothy Germond, Mrs. Leo Young, of Salem, Mrs. Bernard Saar, Miss Joyce Bridges, Miss Madlyn Stearns, Miss Elizabeth Campbell, Mrs. Gordon Payne (Eleanor Entler), Mrs. Wright T. Mallory, Jr. (Betty Russell), and the hostess, Miss Ila Laubach.

Mrs. Miller was graduated from the Roseburg high school in 1937 and during her attendance in school here was recognized as an outstanding student and was a popular member of the younger set. She was active in Roseburg, where she was a member of the Y. W. C. A. and in 1941 received her teaching credentials. He was director of a campus radio show this year and directed the Campus Little Theater orchestra at the college. He is a member of Phi My Alpha, national music fraternity and Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic fraternity. This fall he will teach music in the high school at Claverdale, Calif., where they will make their home.

Following the wedding ceremony at Carson City, Mr. and Mrs. Miller went to Glenbrook, Lake Tahoe, Nevada, for a wedding dinner. Miss Jean Geddes and Miss Helen Marie Catching, both of Roseburg, are employed at Glenbrook. Following the wedding dinner Mrs. Miller came on to Roseburg to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ruhl, until August 1st, and Mr. Miller went to Porterville, where he will be employed until August 1st, when he will join his wife here and they will take a honeymoon trip to Carmel-by-the-Sea.

Miss Madlyn Stearns entertained at a charming miscellaneous shower party Friday evening at her home in Oakland in compliment to Miss Frances Wimberly, who will become the bride of Robert James Healy, July 9, at an impressive ceremony at St. George's Episcopal church.

The evening hours were spent in embroidering tea towels for the guest of honor. Following the presentation of the many lovely gifts to Miss Wimberly, refreshments were served by Miss Stearns, hostess. To Miss Wimberly, guest of honor and her mother, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, Miss Joyce Bridges, Miss Gay Bubar, Miss Annabelle Berg, Miss Bettyjane Dixon, Miss Frances Metzger, Miss Eleanor Entler, Miss Mary Jo Parkinson, Mrs. Frank Coen, Mrs. Dick Ludwig, Miss Eugenia Virden, Miss Dorothy Germond, Miss Thelma Carter and Mrs. H. C. Stearns.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Marshall Pengra and Mrs. T. G. Watson, guests, and Mrs. O. R. Hess, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and the hostess, Mrs. Coen.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the pleasant afternoon hours with score prizes going to Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Watson.

ELEANOR E. ENTLER AND GORDON MCA. PAYNE MARRY AT CHURCH

Five-hundred gorgeous white Regal lilies and tall ivory cathedral candles formed an impressive setting for the wedding Tuesday, June 24, of Miss Eleanor Elizabeth Entler, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Entler, of Roseburg, to Gordon McAllister Payne, of Fort Lewis, son of Mrs. Gordon McAllister Payne, Sr., of Boulder, Colo., at St. George's Episcopal church. Rev. Perry Smith performed the ceremony in the presence of about fifty relatives and close friends of the couple at eleven o'clock in the morning.

The bride was lovely in a floor length gown of white embroidered organza. Her fingertip wedding veil was fashioned with a coronet of stetsonia and she carried a shower bouquet of pale pink rosebuds, sweetpeas and ferns centered by gardenias. She was given in marriage by her father. The bride and bridegroom were unattended.

The bride's mother wore an attractive ensemble of dark blue sheer with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige-colored ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias and yellow rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a charming informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Laurelwood. About thirty close friends and relatives were present.

Sweetpeas and Canterbury bells formed a very attractive motif for the rooms, while the beautifully decorated tiered wedding cake was topped by the same miniature bride and bridegroom as used on the wedding cake of the bride's brother, Dan Entler, when he was married the fall of 1938. The bride cut the wedding cake, which was served by Mrs. Gordon Payne, Sr. Mrs. L. A. Wells poured. The church decorations were arranged by Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter and Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen.

For traveling the bride chose an attractive aqua-colored suit with matching hat and tan accessories. Following a wedding trip to Timberline lodge, they will go to Washington to make their home, while the bridegroom is stationed at Fort Lewis. Their residence will be maintained in either Tacoma or Olympia.

The bride, who is one of Roseburg's most popular young ladies, was graduated from the local high school and was graduated from University of Oregon in the class of 1941. After being graduated from the university, she enjoyed a trip to Honolulu and upon her return to the United States, spent several weeks visiting in San Francisco, before returning to Roseburg to be with her parents until her marriage this week. She has been the inspiration for a number of charming parties during the last few weeks.

The bridegroom was graduated from Culver Military school in Culver, Ind.; attended University of Nebraska and University of Oregon. He was stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., the last three months and has just recently been transferred to the Fort Lewis post.

ELLISON BURR BRIDGE SUPPER GIVEN IN HONOR OF MRS. D. R. MACKILLOP

One of the most charming parties of the week was the seven o'clock bridge-supper given Tuesday evening by Mrs. A. J. Ellison and Mrs. T. R. Burr at the former's home on East Cass street in compliment to Mrs. D. R. Mackillop, nee Pauline Lubar, who is here from Long Beach, Calif., to remain for her sister, Miss Gay Bubar's, wedding to take place June 29.

The buffet table was covered by a white satin damask cloth and centered with a white bowl of blue and yellow blossoms, flanked by white candle holders holding white lighted tapers. Dainty bouquets of summer flowers graced the small serving tables, while the larger bouquets about the rooms were arrangements of hydrangeas in pink and white with deep blue delphinium.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Mackillop, guest of honor, her mother, Mrs. P. T. Bubar, Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mrs. Harrie W. Booth, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. O. R. Hess, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. L. E. McClintock, Mrs. H. C. Berg and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours with Mrs. Mackillop receiving the guest prize and Mrs. C. B. Wade and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly the first and second high score prizes.

At one of the season's largest and very beautiful of church weddings, Miss Willa Metta Logsdon, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Logsdon, of Riddle, became the bride of George A. Wilhelm, Jr., of San Diego, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wilhelm, of Junction City, Saturday, June 21st, at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Roseburg. Father Leo Sheehan performed the impressive double ring ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of 190 relatives and friends of the couple.

Huge baskets of pink rambler roses, blue larkspur and tiny white chrysanthemums were arranged at the windows of the church, while pink, blue and white Canterbury bells, syringa, delphiniums and Madonna lilies were arranged in floor baskets at the chancel. Tall white Cathedral tapers were lighted in the candleabra at the altar. White bows, tied with sprays of white sweetpeas and Dorothy Perkins roses, marked each pew.

Preceding the ceremony Flora Crittenden, of Eugene, sang, "Paris Angelicus" by Cesar Franck and "Ave Maria" by Charles Gounod, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Schaefer, organist, and Miss Josephine Miller, violinist, both from Eugene.

The wedding party advanced to the altar with the opening strains of "Marche Nuptiale" by Louis Ganne played by Miss Mabel Weberg, of Maupin, who played at the close of the ceremony the "Recessional Wedding March" by William Hill.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a princess style, floor-length gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a full train. The wedding veil of silk net was fingertip in length and was edged with lace and arranged with a Mary Stuart cap of satin covered with seed pearls to match the neckline of the wedding dress. She carried an all-white bride's bouquet centered by gardenias and encircled by white carnations and maidenhair ferns. Satin ribbons attached to the bouquet held in place tiny sprays of swansonia.

The maid of honor, Miss Pearl Horning, of Plattsburg, New York, was charming in a powder blue marquisette gown fashioned with lace inserts and a swirl skirt. The sleeves of the gown were full and long and the neckline was close fitting. She carried a bouquet of Picardy gladioli buds around gardenias and tied with pink satin ribbon.

Fullerton from Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hennessy, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Barth, Mr. and Mrs. J. A.
