Five Happiness Rules Offered by Dr. Brougher

Taking as his subject "The Road to Happiness," Dr. Russell M. Brougher, noted evangelist who has been conducting meetings at the Roseburg Baptist church, addressed the Roseburg Rotary club meeting Thursday.

He listed the following five rules for a happy life: Always look on the bright side of life; accept cheerfully the place in life in which you find yourself each day; throw your whole heart and soul into the work that you have to do; form the habit of doing some little deed of kindness each day; and have a simple childlike faith in God.

Chas. Emery took office as president of the club and the retiring president, V. J. Micelli, was presented with a gold club emblem in appreciation of his services.

Evangelist to Speak on South American Work

The Rev. J. Maxey Walton, missionary evangelist, who is completing a revival campaign in the Pilgrim Holiness church, 477 S. Jackson St., Roseburg, will conduct a public missionary program at the church auditorium at 10 o'clock Sunday evening.

FOURTEEN TAKE EXAMINATIONS IN HOME NURSING COURSE

Fourteen members of the evening class in home nursing, sponsored by the Red Cross, took the final examination for the course Tuesday evening at the Red Cross rooms in the Roseburg National Bank building.

The certificates to those passing the examination will arrive here from San Francisco in about a week and will be awarded at that time.

Mrs. T. H. Ness, Douglas County Red Cross chairman, has announced that more home nursing classes will be sponsored here this fall, as a demand has been made by so many interested women all over the county for instruction in home nursing courses. The two classes completed in Roseburg have been unusually large and were reported by class members as to be of great value.

BIRTHDAY DINNER ENJOYED AT FREW HOME TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. George Frew entertained at a delightful six-thirty o'clock birthday dinner Tuesday evening at their home to honor their son, Chester, on his birthday.

The table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and centered with a decorated birthday cake. Covers were placed for Chester Frew, guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith and daughter, Paula, and son, Ronald, and Mr. and Mrs. George Frew.

Post of Dean Won By Golda Wickham

Mrs. Golda Wickham, former Roseburg and Wilbur resident, for three years instructor in English, mathematics and social sciences at Lincoln high school, was elected dean of girls, according to announcement by Portland school board officials. Mrs. Wickham passed highest among 12 candidates for the position in a competitive written and oral examination before the oral examination committee of the school board.

Mrs. Wickham is a graduate of the University of Oregon and Oregon State Normal school, teaching at the latter following her graduation. While at the normal school she also served as president of the Women's league. At University of Oregon she was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a national education honorary. With Mrs. Mabel Southworth, also of Lincoln high school's teaching staff, Mrs. Wickham originated Lincoln's popular English and history double period class. She has also served as adviser to the high school dramatic club and as a member of the Oregon state curriculum committee.

Her appointment will become effective the first part of September.

Mrs. Wickham is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Parker of Wilbur.

Boy Burned by Blast of Firecrackers in Pocket

Bob Hallcraft, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Hallcraft of Roseburg, suffered a severe leg burn Friday when two packages of firecrackers exploded in his trousers pocket. The accident occurred while the family was attending the Red and Gun club picnic at Idlewild park. He was given first aid treatment and was brought to his home, where he was placed under the care of a physician.
