MISS EUNICE TAGGART TO ACT AS SPONSOR OF METHODIST YOUTH

Miss Eunice (Nancy) Taggart, of Roseburg, former teacher at Lookingglass and a teacher this last year in Drain, has been selected by the Methodist church as a sponsor of one of its Youth Caravans.

Miss Taggart recently left for San Francisco headquarters to receive her instructions for the two-month tour of her caravan of Methodist young people, who will visit churches in various sections of the country to have charge of church activities during their stay at each place. Miss Taggart was appointed as a sponsor by the Epworth League commission of Oregon.

The youth caravan, which is a movement formerly sponsored in the M. E. church South and has been taken over by the United Methodist churches to continue the work, consists entirely of the youth of the Methodist church. Miss Taggart's caravan will spend the next two months on tour and she plans to return here the first part of September to resume her teaching at Drain.

FORMER ROSEBURG BOY MARRIES

Of interest here is the announcement of the marriage of William Charles Strang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Strang, of Medford, formerly of this city, to Miss Curtis Lorraine Bachelder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bachelder, of Portland, July 6th, at 12:15 o'clock at the First Methodist church in Las Vegas, Nev.

The bride has been making her home with Col. and Mrs. L. E. Walther in Los Angeles since May. Mr. Strang has been in southern California the last 18 months and is an employee of the Douglas Aircraft Corp. Both were graduated from Medford high school and Mr. Strang is a former employee of the Medford Mail-Tribune. After a brief honeymoon to Boulder dam, they will make their home at 1218 12th street in Santa Monica, Cal.

REBEKAH LODGE HAS MEETING

ELKTON, July 8.—Umpqua Rebekah lodge No. 173 held its regular meeting Tuesday evening with Mrs. Gladys Griffith as noble grand.

The penny fund of the Eastern Star chapter and Rebekah lodge has been used. Mrs. Ella Fenley, Mrs. Mary Haines, and Miss Iris Haines made curtains for the dining room and kitchen. Mrs. Agnes Hudson and Mrs. Mary Beckley re-covered the seats and backs of the three big chairs that are in the lodge room.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hedden served refreshments. The tables were very pretty with little flags, red, white and blue flowers and napkins.

GRAND GUARDIAN'S ALBUM TAKEN TO COAST LODGES

Mrs. V. R. Hallcraft, Mrs. James Miller and Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson, of this city, representing the Neighbors of Woodcraft took the grand guardian, Minnie Hiner's album to Port Orford last Tuesday to have the clerk of the N. of W. lodge there sign the book. From there, they went to North Bend and represented the Port Orford lodge by presenting the album to the North Bend lodge for signing. Following a short visit in Coquille, the three Roseburg ladies returned to their homes here.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should get 2 pints of bile into your bowels every day. If bile fails to flow freely, your food may not digest. It may get stuck in the bowels. Then you feel up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sick and the world looks grim.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. See it at drug store. Effective in making bile flow freely. Get the Carter's Little Liver Pills—10¢ and 25¢.

MISS HELEN CASEY RECEIVES PARTS IN TWO PLAYS IN SOUTHERN CALIF.

The many friends here of Miss Helen Casey were delighted to learn this week of her being cast in two plays sponsored by the Pasadena Playhouse association. The first play, "George Washington Slept Here," opened June 30 and was the 605th production of the Pasadena Playhouse, now celebrating its 24th year. Of the seventeen characters listed on the program, Miss Casey's name appears in sixth place. The second play, in which Miss Casey received a part is "Minick." Both characters to be played by Miss Casey are reported to be comedy parts.

Miss Casey is very well known here, having made her home in this city for a number of years. She formerly taught English in the local high school and since ceasing her teaching, she has been very active in promoting interest in plays in this community and has successfully directed and presented a large number of entertainments here.
