Married at Beautiful Church Wedding

Mrs. Robert James Healy (Frances Louise Wimberly)

The largest wedding of 1941 in this city occurred Wednesday, July 9th, when Miss Frances Louise Wimberly, beautiful daughter of Judge and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, of Roseburg, became the bride of Robert James Healy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Healy, of Portland, at St. George's Episcopal church. Rev. Perry Smith, rector, performed the impressive rite in the presence of 250 relatives and close friends at four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon. Hundreds of white calla lilies, large magnolia blossoms, ivy and tall ivory cathedral candles formed a very attractive setting for the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. H. R. Nerbas, of Roseburg, played softly on the pipe organ and the altar candles were lighted by Carl Wimberly, Jr., and Leland Kent Wimberly, brothers of the bride, Mrs. Floyd Lewis, of Roseburg, very charmingly sang, "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mrs. Nerbas.

With the opening strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, the bridal party advanced to the altar, led by the six ushers including Carl Wimberly, Jr., Leland Kent Wimberly and Thomas Marshall, of Roseburg; Ralph Arnold, a cousin of the bridegroom; Donald R. Boyd and W. Leland Rich, all of Portland. The six bridesmaids, all sorority sisters of the bride, followed and included Miss Sally McLellan and Miss Frances Ann Mott, of Salem; Miss Frances McBroom, Miss Jean Horton and Miss Mary Grace, of Portland, and Miss Grace, Bohnekamp, of LaGrande. Mrs. Jack Munro, of Portland, sister of the bridegroom, as matron of honor, was followed by the bride on the arm of her father. The bridegroom was attended by his brother-in-law, Jack Munro, of Portland, as best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, is one of Roseburg's most beautiful and talented members of the younger set. She was charming in a floor-length gown of white starched chiffon, fashioned with a full train, sweetheart neckline outlined with seed pearls, tiny buttons at the back of the neckline to the waist and full Empress fashioned sleeves. Her full-length tulle veil was arranged with a short face veil and was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She wore white linen sandals and a hand-wrought necklace centered with a zircon stone and matching ring (gift from the bridegroom). Her shower bouquet was of white tulle roses, tied with a shower of white satin ribbons, and centered with a large white orchid.

The matron of honor was lovely in a Princess model of shell pink starched chiffon, fashioned floor-length with lace banding the bodice, full Empress sleeves and high neckline. She carried a shower bouquet of fuchsia-colored gladioli buds with matching flower head-dress. The six bridesmaids wore powder blue chiffon gowns, fashioned identically as the matron of honor's, and carried shower bouquets of shell pink gladioli buds with matching head-dresses. The men in the wedding party wore tuxedos and white carnations in their coat lapel with the exception of the bridegroom, who wore a gardenia in his coat lapel.

charge of Mrs. Larry Watson, of Eugene, and Miss Joan Booth, of Corvallis. Miss Eugenia Virden, of Corvallis, had charge of the guest book and Miss Maralee Fry, of Grants Pass, and Miss Madlyn Stearns, of Oakland, greeted the guests at the door and presented them to the receiving line, which included the bride party and the parents of the bride and bridegroom.

During the reception hours, Mrs. Lewis sang, "Ich Liebe Dick" by Gregg and "Because" by Gounod, accompanied by Mrs. Nerbas at the piano and Miss Maralee Fry, of Grants Pass, playing the violin obligato. As the bride and bridegroom left on their honeymoon, their college friends sang the sweetheart songs of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Jean Horton, of Portland.

For traveling the bride chose a redingote model of aqua blue silk crepe with white and navy accessories and an orchid corsage. Following a wedding trip to Newport and other coast points, they will spend a few days in Roseburg and Portland and will leave July 16th for Niagara Falls, en route to Mountclair, New Jersey, where they will be at home to their friends after August 1st at 45 Church street.

The bride was graduated from Oregon State college in 1941 and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, national social sorority; Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism sorority; Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary, and Omicron Nu, national home economics professional honorary. The mid-term of her senior year was spent at Merrill Palmer in Detroit, to which she was awarded a scholarship for her high scholastic standing from the Oregon State college. She returned to Corvallis for the spring term and was graduated there in June. The bridegroom attended Portland university and was later graduated from the school of engineering at Oregon State college in 1940. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and is now employed as an aeronautical engineer for the Wright Aircraft corporation with headquarters at Paterson, New Jersey.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included the following relatives of the bridegroom: Mr. and Mrs. James Healy (parents), Miss Nancy Healy (sister), Mr. and Mrs. Jack Munro (brother-in-law and sister), Mrs. F. L. Roth (aunt), and Ralph Arnold (cousin), all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fawcett (brother-in-law and sister), of Astoria; Mrs. L. L. Mills (aunt), of Cascade Locks, Ore.; Mrs. T. B. Virden and daughter, Miss Eugenia, and Miss Joan Booth, of Corvallis; Mrs. Dan McLellan and daughter, Mrs. Sally, Mrs. James W. Mott and daughter, Mrs. Frances Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElhinny and daughter, Miss Jean, Mrs. Samuel Rose and Mrs. Leo Young, all of Salem; Miss Grace Bohnekamp, of LaGrande; Miss Frances McBroom, Miss Jean Horton, Donald R. Boyd, W. Leland Rich, Mrs. Ivan B. McKinney and Miss Gertrude Spicer, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Macklin and son, Wayne, of Cottage Grove; Mrs. D. R. MacKillop, of Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. L. L. Miller, of Dilard; Mrs. Lillian Tabke, of Astoria; Mrs. J. Harold Nichols, of Brookway; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fry and daughters, Miss Maralee and Miss Marcia, of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Watson, of Eugene; Mrs. George R. Childs, of San Francisco; Miss Frances Cox, of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stearns and daughter, Miss Madlyn, of Oakland, Ore.

Those enjoying the meeting with Mrs. McCuan included: Mrs. R. L. Hounshell, Mrs. C. W. Dishman, Mrs. W. E. Sullivan, Mrs. Adrian Hubert, Mrs. Alfred Neal, Mrs. V. R. Hallcraft, Mrs. A. H.
