The ladies will meet next Thursday at 9 a. m. for golfing; potluck luncheon at 12:30 and contract bridge play at 1:30 o'clock.

WEDDING PARTY ENJOYS CHARMING DINNER AT HOTEL UMPQUA TUESDAY

Judge and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly entertained the wedding party of their daughter, Miss Frances Louise Wimberly, at a very charming seven o'clock dinner party preceding the rehearsal Tuesday evening at the Hotel Umpqua.

The table, which was decorated by Mrs. D. R. MacKillop (Pauline Butar), of Long Beach, Calif., was beautifully appointed with bowls of violets and pansies (flowers of the sorority and fraternity of the bride-elect and bridegroom-elect), and crystal candleholders holding tall lighted tapers. Forns and satin ribbons outlined the entire centerpiece.

Covers were placed for Miss Frances Louise Wimberly and Robert James Healy, guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. James Healy, and daughter, Miss Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Munro, Miss Jean Horton, Miss Frances McBroom, Miss Mary Blegg, Ralph Arnold, Donald R. Boyd and W. Leland Rich, all of Portland; Miss Sally McLellan and Miss Frances Ann Mott, of Salem; Miss Grace Bohenkamp, of La Grande; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fawcett, of Astoria; Thomas Marshall, Carl Wimberly, Jr., Leland Kent Wimberly, of Roseburg, and Miss Helen Jane Kerr, of this city, a sorority sister of the bride-elect, and Miss Geraldine Spicer, of Portland, fiancée of Donald R. Boyd, and the host and hostess, Judge and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly.

As a surprise at the dinner party, Miss Horton announced her engagement to Robert Tarrant, of Portland. Both Miss Horton and Mr. Tarrant were graduated from Oregon State college in the 1941 class with Miss Wimberly. The six bridesmaids and Miss Wimberly are all members of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Tarrant is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. The wedding has been set for early fall. (At the Wimberly-Healy wedding Wednesday, Miss Horton caught the bride's bouquet.)

While the bride-elect and her matron of honor and bridesmaids enjoyed the dinner party, the bridegroom-elect and best man and ushers enjoyed a stag party at the Hotel Benson.

HEALY-WIMBERLY BRIDAL PARTY HONORED AT CHARMING AFFAIR

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly entertained at a very charming ten o'clock brunch at her beautiful home on Glenn street Wednesday morning to compliment her niece, Miss Frances Louise Wimberly and bridal party.

Cupid figurines, pale pink gladioli buds and white sweetpeas formed a very lovely motif for the buffet table, while huge bouquets of pink gladioli were used about the spacious rooms of the attractive home.

Covers were placed for Miss Frances Louise Wimberly and Robert James Healy, guests of honor; Judge and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly and sons, Carl, Jr., and Leland Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Munro, Miss Frances McBroom, Miss Jean Horton, Miss Mary Blegg, Ralph Arnold, Donald R. Boyd and W. Leland Rich, all of Portland, Thomas Marshall, of Roseburg, Miss Grace Bohenkamp, of La Grande, Miss Sally McLellan and Miss Frances Ann Mott, of Salem, and additional guests included: Miss Frances Cox, of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Roy Bellows and Mrs. Broadway. The hostess was assisted in serving and about the rooms by Mrs. George Wharton.

RIVERSDALE GRANGE ENJOYS HOLIDAY PICNIC AT HUTTON'S GROVE

A large number of Riversdale grange members, their families and friends enjoyed their annual Fourth of July picnic at the beautiful Hutton's grove on the Umpqua river Friday. The first picnic held by the grange at the grove was in 1912. The Huttons have owned the beautiful grove continuously since 1911.

FRANCES WIMBERLY IS COMPLIMENTED AT PARTY GIVEN IN PORTLAND

On Monday evening, Miss Jean Horton and Miss Frances McBroom, both of Portland, entertained at a very lovely seven o'clock dinner party at Henry Thibodeau's in that city in compliment to Miss Frances Louise Wimberly, whose marriage occurred the following Wednesday to Robert James Healy.

The two hostesses, bridesmaids at the wedding, besides the bride-elect, Mrs. Jack Munro, matron of honor, and the other four bridesmaids: Miss Sally McLellan and Miss Frances Ann Mott, of Salem; Miss Mary Blegg, of Portland, and Miss Grace Bohenkamp, of La Grande.

Miss Wimberly presented lovely mother-of-pearl lockets to each of her six bridesmaids and a similar locket bearing a tiny cross, to her matron of honor.

As a surprise at the dinner party, Miss Horton announced her engagement to Robert Tarrant, of Portland. Both Miss Horton and Mr. Tarrant were graduated from Oregon State college in the 1941 class with Miss Wimberly. The six bridesmaids and Miss Wimberly are all members of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Tarrant is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. The wedding has been set for early fall. (At the Wimberly-Healy wedding Wednesday, Miss Horton caught the bride's bouquet.)

While the bride-elect and her matron of honor and bridesmaids enjoyed the dinner party, the bridegroom-elect and best man and ushers enjoyed a stag party at the Hotel Benson.

Popular Roseburg Couple Marry July 4

Pale pink rosebuds, chiffon daisies and English laurel formed a beautiful motif for the wedding Friday, July 4th, of Miss Mary Walter, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Walter, of Estacada, Ore., and Robert D. Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Black, at the home of the bridegroom's parents on East Douglas street. Rev. John A. Barney, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, performed the impressive ring ceremony at eleven o'clock in the morning in the presence of Miss Leah Walter, sister of the bride, who acted as maid of honor, Burton Black, brother of the bridegroom and best man at the wedding; Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Black and Miss Florence Shotkoski.

The bridegroom stood before the fireplace, flanked by English laurel and flanked by huge bouquets of roses and chiffon daisies with a matching low arrangement on the mantle. The decorations were arranged by Mrs. L. L. Wimberly.

The bride was charming in a toffee-tan three-piece ensemble with white blouse and tan and white accessories. Her corsage was a spray of gardenias arranged with stephanotis. The maid of honor was lovely in a pink silk crepe frock fashioned with lace and her corsage was of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore an attractive self-blue chiffon frock with white accessories.

Following the ceremony, a wedding luncheon was served at a beautifully appointed table centered with a tiered wedding cake encircled by pale blue and orchid colored delphinium blossoms. Four small bowls, filled with white daisies and white delphiniums, were at the ends of the table and the centerpiece was flanked by tall ivory tapers. The wedding cake was cut by the bride.

After a honeymoon trip to Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Black returned to Roseburg and are at home to their friends at 428 Pitzer street.

The bride, who was graduated from high school in Estacada and from beauty school in Portland, is well known here, having made her home in this city for the last three years. She is employed as a beauty operator at the Grand Beauty shop. Mr. Black attended school in Washington and took post graduate work in the senior high here. He is employed as a salesman for Lockwood Motors.

CHARMING PARTY GIVEN AT RITTER'S BACK FORTY ON THURSDAY

Ritter's "Back Forty" was the scene of a most delightful party Thursday afternoon with Mrs. James Young and Mrs. Roy Campbell guests of honor. Mrs. Campbell is a former resident here from Bremerton, Wash.

Beautiful gifts were presented the honor guests by friends in the American Legion auxiliary. Gifts were also presented to Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. James Young and Miss Ethel Van Voorst as a token of appreciation for their faithful work for the auxiliary. Mrs. Young has been secretary for three years and Mrs. Ulrich treasurer for three. Ethel Van Voorst has been president of the junior auxiliary the past year.

A most unusual arrangement of flowers in the blue and gold auxiliary colors formed the table decorations. Following the afternoon's entertainment lovely refreshments were served.

Friends presenting gifts to Mrs. Young and Mrs. Campbell were: Mrs. Victor Micelli, Mrs. Claude Baker, Mrs. S. W. Van Voorst, Mrs. Walter Olmscheid, Mrs. R. G. Baker, Mrs. Clinton Gorthy, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Harry Hatfield, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. J. L. Pounds, Mrs. Tom Parkinson, Mrs. Irvin Riegel, Mrs. George Caskey, Mrs. A. B. ## GEORGENE SHANKLIN PRESENTS CHARMING PIANO RECITAL TUESDAY

A very delightful piano recital was given last Tuesday afternoon by Georgene Shanklin, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Shanklin. She is a very talented pupil of Gladys H. Strong. Georgene presented the entire program, playing three groups of classic and modern numbers from memory. Her playing was clear with good tone, expressing well the moods of different composers. A good many of those who attended not only expressed enjoyment of the program but also surprise at the mature musicianship of this young student.

The recital was given at Miss Strong's home. Mrs. Shanklin assisted in receiving the guests. Lou Helen Strange, Joyce Bartley and Betty Cracroft assisted Miss Strong in serving refreshments at the close of the program.

- Program:
- Allegro con brio from the Sonata in C Haydn
  - Allegro from the Sonata in C Mozart
  - Pomponette Durand
  - Folk Song Grieg
  - Album Leaf
  - Patriotic Song
  - Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2 Liszt
  - Intermezzo Karganoff
  - Moonlight on the Terrace Wagner
  - The Swallows Godard
