DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

Man has always been building altars. Nothing would impress the world more than for Christians to show real loyalty to the church of Jesus Christ. The church should have the first place in our hearts, the highest place in our minds, the principal place in our activities. We do wrong to the church if we deny her first place. To the church of Christ we owe our zeal, our benevolence, and our prayers. When we neglect its services, we injure its good name, we lessen its power, we discourage its members and we hurt our own souls. Her unity, her peace, her progress should concern our lives. We have earnestly promised in the sight of God and man to advance its interest by our faithful attendance, by reading the Bible, by never forsaking its ordinances, by contributing to its support, by meeting with our fellow members and joining with them in prayer and praise and service. It would be a pity if our last Sunday on earth was spent in frivolity and pleasure, instead of loyal service to our Christ. Let us then be faithful for "he that is faithful in that which is least, will be faithful in that which is much. Amen."

ODDITIES

(By the Associated Press)

Know Thy Neighbor

CAMDEN, N. J.—Two Connecticut state troopers who hunted three days for a man and woman named in fugitive warrants finally sent an SOS to Camden police.

Local detectives found the couple in the same hotel where the troopers were staying.

Old Fashioned Dog

CHICAGO—Chesney, William Baker's black spaniel, is a "gentleman" among dogs. He has been trained to stand up on his hind legs whenever a woman enters an elevator, but:

When a young lady stepped into the lift the other day, Chesney was steadfast in his refusal to stand up. She was wearing slacks.
