PIANO AND VOICE RECITAL IS CHARMING AFFAIR OF THURSDAY

A very lovely recital was given last Thursday evening by Barbara Young, pianist, and Betty Marsters, soprano, at the home of Miss Gladys Strong. The program was of unusual interest as both of these students are well-known for their musical ability.
Barbara Young, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Young of Oakland, is the pupil of Miss Strong. She played three groups of very delightful numbers chosen from the different periods of literature for the piano. She played brilliantly with good style, having variety as well as good quality of tone and expressing interestingly the mood of the various numbers.
Betty Marsters, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Marsters, is a pupil of Mrs. Charles Brand. She has a lovely lyric soprano voice and is a well known young singer. She sang two very pleasing groups of songs artistically and in excellent style. Miss Strong was her accompanist.

A very pleasant reception was enjoyed at the close of the program. The guests were served on the porch and lawn. Mrs. W. F. Harris, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. Charles Brand, Florence Hamilton and Jerry Johnson assisted in serving.
