found shooting back.

BERLIN: "The titanic struggle on the eastern front is turning everywhere into a German victory. Germany foresees a victory so decisive that its consequences will have far-reaching effects on the fate of Europe."

Moscow: "Hand-to-hand bayonet combat in trench warfare radically altering German blitzkrieg style is reported to have developed, with the red army holding on after a night-long battle."

THE real news from the eastern front is RAIN, drenching the flat lands and marshes and threatening to ground the Stukas and halt the tanks at the critical moment of the German offensive.

Often enough in history the weather has stepped in to take a hand in warfare.

OF TENER on the sea than on the land. In the first Punic war, Rome lost two fleets by storm, but replaced them—building FOUR fleets altogether—and eventually defeated the sea-going Carthaginians on their own element.

The ancient Romans were a tough, stubborn, determined lot—much like the modern English.

ANOTHER of these little sidelights from the eastern front: The Germans are using rockets—red as a signal to open fire, white as a signal to attack and green as a signal to cease firing.

Last night (Thursday) a Russian officer sent up his own green rocket, deceiving the Germans and causing them to cease firing. The Russian then led his own troops into a counter-charge.

An insignificant little incident, of course, on a battle front nearly two thousand miles long and involving nine million troops.

IN London a British economic expert says the German oil supply has been reduced dangerously by the Russian campaign.

That may be wishful thinking, and it may be inside knowledge gleaned from the reports of competent spies inside Germany.

One never can tell.

SPEAKING of spying. A spy who works on OUR SIDE is a patriot, courageous and devoted, risking his life daily in one of war's most dangerous phases.

A spy on the ENEMY side is a despicable object, loathed by all right-thinking people and shot when caught.

Albany Juniors To Be Roseburg Foe In Play-Off Game

No arrangements so far have been made for the play-off between the Roseburg and Albany Legion Juniors for the right to enter the state baseball championship series.

Albany won the southern Willamette district title, while Roseburg took the southwestern Oregon championship. The two teams are now to play a series of games from which the winner will go into the state championship contest.

It is expected that arrangements for the semi-final round will be made at the state convention of the American Legion, now in progress at Eugene.

SERIAL STORY

LOVE POWER

BY OREN ARNOLD

YESTERDAY: Leana Sorini makes careful plans to murder Carolyn. She constructs a radio receiving set, carries it into Tonto Mountain, connects its generator to a dynamite cap in the X-999 container.

CHAPTER XXII

ON four different occasions Leana Sorini had clocked the time necessary to walk from the Tyler cottage, down a trail, around the curving railroad track and into the old mine shaft to the X-999.

She had, therefore, only to set an arbitrary hour for Carolyn to be inside the shaft. Then she could time herself accordingly, and be at her prepared station on the far side of Mummy Ridge.

She knew that her concealed receiver-generator, wired to set off the dynamite cap, was extremely sensitive. Her transmitter on Mummy Ridge would reach it easily, even through the rock and soil of Tonto Mountain.

This time she had no accomplices, no one but herself to trust. The perfection of the plan gave Leana double satisfaction.

First, it would completely remove that annoying stenographer from the scene, she who had so brazenly intruded upon Leana's and Bob's affairs.

Second, it would "punish" Robert for neglecting her, by destroying the X-999 which he had worked so long to produce.

She was so pleased with herself on this, appointed day of victory that she had accepted Robert's impulsive invitation to ride horseback with him and Carolyn.

Why not go? Why not! It would be her hour of triumph over the stupid, unsuspecting Tyler girl.

In preparation, Leana spent almost an hour dressing this afternoon. She had only the Hopi Indian cook to aid her, and she lacked what any average American-born woman would have called essential cosmetics.

Perfecting her hair, she saw that it was literally the spun gold of the love-story heroines. She posed before her mirror—undeniably she possessed form and grace.

Enjoy Week-End—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holmes and son, Lee, and daughter, Joan, returned to their home Monday on East Lane street following the week-end at Lake Tahkenitch and Newport.

ANGRIPLY, she knew she could do nothing about either. She hastened to don a most becoming riding costume.

CAROLYN experienced a moment of panic when Leana joined them. That Leana had come at all, or that Bob had even asked her, was a distinct surprise.

For that, Carolyn was thankful.

When the trip was over and they were back at their little village stables again, they separated with a certain forced merriment.

Carolyn walked straight home. It was after 5 o'clock, she noted. Her mother was mixing a chocolate cake and, oddly, it didn't interest Carolyn, who also loved to cook.

She just sat and stared at the floor for 20 minutes or so—and was surprised again when Leana Sorini called her from out front.

"Oh Miss Tyler," Leana began, "Robert asked me to bring a confidential message. He wants you to meet him in the tunnel at 8 o'clock, please. It seemed to be important."

Carolyn was mildly surprised. "At—8?"

Leana nodded. "Yes. He thought it best to meet there while most of the village is at the dinner hour." Leana spoke significantly. "Yes, understand. At the—substance, I think I shall ride a bit more myself. Another time we can go together, maybe!"

THE older girl rode away. When Carolyn had changed from her riding clothes she started to walk down to the trail and around the bend that led to the Tonto Mountain tunnel. She was curious. She looked for Bob but didn't see him, so probably he had already gone in.

From across a canyon Leana watched Carolyn depart. She noted the exact time on her wrist watch. Then she rode her horse on around Mummy Ridge out of sight.

After exactly 26 minutes she pressed a switch on the transmitter she had concealed.

Yankees Sew Up Pennant With 7 Game Margin

By JUDSON BAILEY

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

A week ago the big question in the American league was whether the New York Yankees would sew up the pennant in their remaining games in the west. They did.

Now the question is whether they will turn the "race" into an utter rout or let the vanquished drag along in pain a while longer.

The bombers won 11 out of their 13 contests in a triumphant swing through the western half of the circuit and have won 34 of their past 40 in a tremendous spurt that has dwarfed the efforts of all the other clubs.

Only the Cleveland Indians, seven games back in second place, have even the remotest hope of overtaking the pacemakers and they are going to be given their last chance in a three-game series in New York today, tomorrow and Thursday.

The Brooklyn Dodgers stayed behind yesterday to clean up some unfinished business in the only game of the day in either loop. But instead of improving their position at the top of the senior circuit the Dodgers dropped an 8-3 decision to the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Pirates punted four Brooklyn pitchers for 11 hits, including a pair of two-run homers by Fletcher and Vince DiMaggio.

While this was going on Heinzelman held the Dodgers neatly in check on 10 hits.

This was Brooklyn's fourth defeat in five games and cut the Dodgers' first place margin over the St. Louis Cardinals to one game.

Defense Quiz

Q. I cannot find the word "Defense" anywhere on the Defense Savings Stamps I have bought. Are they merely Postal Savings Stamps, or does my money invested in these Stamps go into the Defense Program?

A. The money you use to purchase these Stamps goes definitely into the Defense Program. The Stamps bear the words "America on Guard," which indicates that they are an integral part of the Defense Program.

Q. Are Defense Savings Stamps registered, and are they transferable?

A. Defense Savings Stamps are not registered but they are transferable.

Note—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office or bank, or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C., for an order form.

Softball Leaguers Will Play Here Tonight

Two softball games between league teams will be played at Finlay field tonight, Howard Stucky, league manager, announced today. The first game, between Dunham's Transfermen and Boucock's Butchers, will start at 7:30 o'clock, and the second game, which will follow immediately after the first contest, will be played between Montgomery Ward and the Texaco Chiefs.

Equipment At Phone Office Here Being Increased

Installation of additional central office equipment in the Roseburg telephone office, calling for a gross expenditure of approximately $20,000, now is under way, according to F. L. Crittenden, Roseburg manager for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Starting this week, the Western Electric company, which handles major installation work for the telephone company, will have four men on the job here.

Included in the project will be the installation of equipment to provide facilities for approximately 150 new local telephones, and the installation of special long distance equipment.

The work is being done to take care of anticipated growth in the Roseburg exchange and to provide for increased long distance facilities necessitated largely by national defense activities.

The present schedule calls for the work to be rushed to completion within two months. Such a job normally would take at least double that length of time, Mr. Crittenden pointed out.

Enjoy Week-End—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holmes and son, Lee, and daughter, Joan, returned to their home Monday on East Lane street following the week-end at Lake Tahkenitch and Newport.
