Mr. and Mrs. Knute Kershner

Miss Vivian Marie Bartley, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bartley, and Knute O. Kershner, only son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Keshner, were married at a very beautiful ceremony Saturday morning, July 19th, at the home of the bride's parents, 208 West Douglas street, Rev. John A. Barney, pastor of the First Christian church of Roseburg, performed the double ring ceremony at nine-thirty o'clock in the presence of relatives and a few close friends of the couple. The date of the wedding marked the first anniversary of the bride's brother-in-law and sister.

An improvised altar was arranged at one end of the living room by the use of baskets of pink gladioli blossoms and clematis and lighted white cathedral candles. Miss Kathryn Busenbark arranged the decorations for the ceremony. Proceeding the ceremony, Joyce Bartley, sister of the bride, and charming in a white flowered frock, lighted the candles.

The bride was very beautiful in a two-piece beige-colored jacket dress, fashioned with quilted lapels and plait across the front of the skirt. She wore navy blue accessories and her corsage was centered with a gardenia and circled by bouvardia. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Paul Houser, of Toledo, Ore. (nee Maxine Bartley), wore a blue frock with a corsage of gladioli buds and acted as matron of honor for her sister and Delbert Parker, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride's mother was charming in a deep-blue colored afternoon frock with a corsage of gladioli buds and the bridegroom's mother wore an attractive flowered chiffon frock with gladioli bud corsage.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held. The buffet table, beautifully appointed in white gladioli buds, white carnations and tall white tapers, was centered by the three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. The bride cut the cake, which was served by her sister, Mrs. Paul Houser.

Those present included: the bride and bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bartley and daughter, Miss Joyce; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Houser, of Toledo, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Kershner, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Parker, Miss Kathryn Busenbark, Mrs. Frank Poole and Rev. John A. Barney.

Following the wedding reception, the bride and bridegroom left for coast points on their honeymoon and are now at home to their friends in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

Both the bride and bridegroom are prominent members of the younger set of this city and were both graduated from Roseburg high school. The bride has been employed since being graduated from high school at the Douglas Conservation office and Mr. Kershner is employed by Pacific Fruit and Produce company with headquarters in this city.

MRS. FRANK LONG IS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Frank Long very graciously entertained her bridge club Wednesday at a charming one-thirty o'clock luncheon at the Hotel Rose, followed by contract bridge at the attractive Long home on South Pine street. Beautiful bouquets of gladioli, zinnias and cosmos were arranged about the rooms.
