Wheat Marketing Act Modified For Excess Acreage

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—The house yesterday passed legislation to amend the wheat marketing quota act to permit farmers to sell their normal production of wheat, even if harvested from excess acreage, without paying penalties.

Rep. Ridley (R., Okla.) told the house the bill "takes care of the farmer with excess acreage and a crop failure."

It was explained the measure, which now goes to the senate, would allow a farmer who had a 100-acre allotment and a normal production of 10 bushels an acre, to sell penalty-free 1,000 bushels even though the production actually came five bushels an acre from 200 acres. Under the present law the penalty would have to be levied on all produced acreage in excess of the 100-acre allotment.

The agriculture department announced provisions whereby farmers who have wheat in excess of their 1941 marketing quotas may sell below their 1942 AAA acreage allotments and obtain permission to sell the over-quota grain without paying the 49-cent-a-bushel penalty.

This permission will be granted by local AAA farmer committee as soon as the 1942 crop is planted. Winter wheat crop seeding usually starts about September 1. Thus producers of excess winter wheat could market such grain this fall.

DAILY DEVOTIONS
DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

Conscious of a soiled heart, the Psalmist David uttered the fervent prayer, as he made an appeal to the forgiving mercy of God. "According unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions." And the Prophet Isaiah represents God as saying: "I, even I, am He that blot out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will remember no more thy sins." God changes the blot into beauty. There is a beautiful story of a lady who showed the artist, John Ruskin, a valuable handkerchief, which she had intended as a gift to a dear friend. But an ugly blot was made when a drop of marking ink had fallen on it. Mr. Ruskin asked for it, and when he returned it after a few days, it was found that he had made the blot the foundation for a lovely design. Where there had been a blot there was now beauty, for it had been touched by the hand of a master artist. So, lives darkened and distorted by sin become radiant and beautiful when renewed by the spirit of God. "Be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your minds that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." Amen.

Quail roost in star formation with their heads pointing out, and, when flushed, they take off in all directions.
