

Japan Retaliates With Freeze of Alien Assets

American oil companies also seemingly were blocked from further business in Japan.

The President lines already in using a skeleton staff, since the line's ships have been skipping Japan for several months.

Treasury officials at Washington said that while Japanese ships in American ports or waters would be at least temporarily immobilized, a final decision would be made in the immediate future as to whether the vessels were "assets" under the order.

There was no information available as to whether there were any American ships which might be seized in retaliation—in Japanese ports or waters.

American circles at Shanghai said Japan probably would occupy the international settlement and the French concession, the principal parts of the city which, out of deference to extraterritorial rights of Occidental powers, had been left unoccupied when the Japanese invasion of China enveloped Shanghai.

The French concession and the international settlement were likely to be yielded without resistance.

The first is under the administration of the Vichy government whose capitulation to the Japanese plan of "joint defense" of French Indo-China was followed by the economic countersteps of the British and Americans against Japan.

The international settlement is virtually defended and indefensible against the thousands of Japanese already in Japanese-controlled parts of the city.

Three bombers bearing Major General Sumita, head of the Japanese mission to the French colony, and aides swooped down today after the time that a train of military trucks reached the southern city.

The Japanese occupation of Indo-China, now in prospect, has been represented by Britons and Americans as a potential threat to Singapore, the Great British fortress of the far east; the Dutch East Indies and the Philippines, if not the whole southern Pacific sphere which Japan says is hers to lead.

There is so much confusion among retreating soviet units, especially along the southern sector of the front, that Russian commanders apparently have lost all control of their forces, DNB, official news agency, said.

RAF LOSES 8 PLANES IN RAIDS ON GERMANY

BERLIN, July 26.—(AP)—Eight British bombers were claimed by the high command today as shot down in British air raids on Germany last night, including one shot at Berlin itself.

Other sources said a four-engine bomber had been shot down and its crew of six killed about 12 miles west of Berlin.

On the offensive, Adolf Hitler's headquarters said, the luftwaffe again hammered at the British naval base at Alexandria, Egypt, and at Britain's ocean supply lines.

A 4,000-ton freighter was sunk in English waters, it said, and supply industries in the east coast port of Great Yarmouth were set afire in air attacks.

ATTACK ON MALTA COSTS AXIS 12 TORPEDO BOATS

LONDON, July 26.—(AP)—The British declared that "about a dozen" axis torpedo boats were sunk today in an attempt to attack the harbor of Valletta, on Britain's Mediterranean island base of Malta.

The admiralty previously announced that the whole British convoy which was heavily attacked by Italian air and torpedo-boat forces in the Mediterranean during the week has made a "successful passage" without the loss of a single merchant ship.

A previous admiralty communication, based on incomplete data,

SOVIET CHINA PACT KEEPS JAPS AWAY FROM RUSSIA

LONDON, July 26.—(AP)—Joseph Stalin and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek were said by a reliable source today to have an understanding by which China would put half a million or more soldiers in the field alongside soviet forces in the event that Japan attacks Russia.

This source said he had been informed that this was one reason that Japan "chose Indo-China instead of a direct attack on Russia to aid her axis partners."

Russia soon will be aided by Polish troops fighting the Germans under a Polish-Russian pact nearing conclusion, this source declared.
