POET'S CORNER

TO ENGLAND

By ALDEN HARNESSE
His vast and countless herds, brave England,
Hitler through thine isle would roll,
And everywhere would ever hold thee
In his terrible control.
Help invaded Russia fight his armies,
As far and wide, thy swift planes pour
Their cargoes, blasting war-equipment
Upon every German shore.
With all thy military might, brave England,
Rend thy relentless foe,
Till from fairest green to deepest crimson
Thy far domains shall grow.
With highest confidence and courage
Fight on and on till thou shalt be
From nazi tyranny and bondage
Completely and forever free.

CUTS and BRUISES

Many a so-called "light" cut or bruise has become serious through neglect. Better take these precautions. Be sure that the injury is clean. Then freely apply Mentholatum and bandage. Not only does this bring a cooling, soothing remedy—relief from pain or stinging—and comfort, but it also promotes healing.
