CLARA ALICE JENSEN AND LYNN E. HODGES MARRY IN EUGENE

LOOKINGGLASS, July 31.—On Friday evening, July 18, at the Light House temple in Eugene, Miss Clara Alice Jensen and Lynn E. Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hodges of Lookingglass, were married at an impressive ceremony performed by Rev. E. J. Fulton, pastor of the temple, before a large white cross placed behind the altar, flanked by lighted candles and centered in a beautiful arrangement of gladioli and ferns. Preceding the ceremony selections were played by a violin quartette and two vocal solos, "Because" and "I Love You Truly," were given.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, George Jensen, of Eugene, was lovely in a floor length gown of white silk chiffon with full length veil with train and carried a white Bible with white satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Margaret Connant, maid of honor, wore a peach colored floor length gown and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas. Miss Iona Hodges, sister of the groom, and Miss Linda Stoneberg were bridesmaids and wore floor-length gowns of pastel blue and sea green with arm bouquets of sweetpeas.

Jeff Hodges, cousin of the groom, acted as best man. Bobby Adams was ring bearer and Oren Reed and Dorman Snyder were ushers.

The young couple will make their home in Eugene where they are both employed. The bride was graduated from the Bible Standard Training school in the class of 1941. Mr. Hodges will complete his Bible school course in another year, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hodges will engage in full time gospel work.

A large group of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. In attendance from Lookingglass were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hodges and daughter, Miss Iona, and sons, Terrance and Glenn. Following the ceremony the young couple accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Hodges and family to Lookingglass where they visited over the week-end. On Saturday evening the young folks of the valley tendered them a charivari and on Sunday morning following the regular Sunday school service, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hodges took charge of the church service, Mrs. Hodges leading the singing and Mr. Hodges bringing the message. They also sang a duet preceding the message. On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hodges took charge of the services in the Bible Standard church in Roseburg. Mrs. Hodges led the young people's group and directed the singing for the worship service and Mr. Hodges brought the message.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS CAMP TO OPEN SUNDAY

The 1941 camp of the Camp Fire Girls will open at the Wolf Creek Boy Scout camp Sunday, August 3, with Mrs. Sidney Domenico as director and Mrs. T. G. Watson, president of the Camp Fire council, as counsellor.

Alan Knudtson, who recently passed final examinations in Washington for water safety and is now a qualified Red Cross swimming instructor, has been secured to have charge of all water sports and instructing beginners and advanced swimming students during the camp. Parents are being assured that the best swimming instruction can now be obtained by the Camp Fire Girls during the 1941 camp.

Mrs. Domenico will be assisted by Miss Jean Strawn and Miss Doris Shoemaker, who have arranged an unusually interesting program for the week, which will include working on numerous Camp Fire ranks and crafts, hikes and various types of training necessary for Camp Fire Girls. Mrs. A. B. Taylor will cook for the girls.

The first meal to be served at the camp will be Sunday evening. All persons visiting the camp during the week are asked to bring their own picnic food, as the camp does not have facilities for the extra guests.

Camp Fire Girls desiring to attend camp are requested to register not later than Friday at the Roseburg chamber of commerce office. Those attending are asked to bring their own flashlight and each girl has been asked to donate a jar of jelly to the camp kitchen. Straw ticks are furnished at the camp, so that sleeping bags will not be necessary.

The Camp Fire council met Tuesday night at the chamber of commerce office to complete arrangements for the camp, which promises to be one of the most delightful and enjoyable ever held.

ROBERT HOLMQUIST HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

MELROSE, July 31.—Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holmquist and daughter, Patty, invited a group of young people to their home Tuesday evening to surprise and honor their son and brother, Robert Holmquist, on his sixteenth birthday anniversary.

The living room was decorated with bouquets of mixed gladioli.

The enjoyable party was held on the lawn where colorful lights were used and tables and benches had been placed. Games were played and visiting enjoyed until later in the evening when gifts were presented to Bobbie, among which was a wrist watch, a gift from his father, mother and sister.

A large and beautifully decorated cake was presented him from the family.

Mrs. Holmquist was assisted in serving ice cream and cake by Mrs. C. E. Johnson and Mrs. Gunner Johnson, to Robert Holmquist, guest of honor, and to Ruby and Ruth Matthews, Charlene Stark, Helen Johnson, Roy Becker, Wayne Nelson, Ray Doerner, Walter Durch, Calvin Conn, Bob Myers, Harry Durch, Ted Tjomslund, Henry Krohn, Jr., Victor Backlund, Doris Durch, Retta Johnson, Leona Kelley from Glengary and Patty Holmquist.

Musicians Picnic to Be Held at Boswell Sunday

Musicians and friends will converge on Boswell Springs Sunday afternoon for the annual musicians picnic, which this year will attract musical groups from Douglas, Coos and Lane counties, according to Horace Berg, chairman.

Mr. Berg emphasized that the picnic was not of a commercial nature, but simply an opportunity for musicians and their friends to get together for a day.

The Roseburg city band will be on hand, as will a band from Reedsport, and an orchestra from Cottage Grove. Other musical groups from Eugene and Marshfield will attend.

Concerts will be given all day, with an old-time fiddling contest as a feature. A public address system will be installed, Mr. Berg states, and the grounds at Boswell Springs are in fine shape for the event.

NOW SHE SHOPS "CASH AND CARRY"
Without Painful Backache
Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.
The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
