P. N. G. CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

RIDDLE, Aug. 5.—The Past Noble Grand club of the local Rebekah lodge was entertained at the home of Alta Aspy Thursday, July 31st, their regular monthly meeting. The hostess reversed the order of serving refreshments, serving at the beginning of the meeting instead of the close. Later in the afternoon, Ann Worthington, president, conducted the business meeting. Plans were made for the supper and entertainment the club has in view for October. Under the good of the order, visitors present gave talks and suggestions to help the club. Sister Edythe Kelley gave an inspirational talk on the part Rebekah could have in promoting peace. Sister Laura Boutell of San Jose also gave an interesting talk on her recollections of early times and her experiences as a Rebekah.

RICH GOLD STRIKE STARTS RUSH IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

LILLOOET, B. C., Aug. 5.—(Canadian Press)—Reported discovery of high grade gold-bearing ore in a wild, mile-high region has sent several score prospectors into the desolate Eliza lake district. The area, 40 miles north of here and about 160 miles northeast of Vancouver, is accessible only by pack train and trail. George Murray, member of the British Columbia legislature, said two young prospectors first struck the gold ore several months ago. He said some gold values ran around $100 to the ton of ore.
