Paroled Oregon Convicts In Year Total 246

SALEM, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The state parole board said in its annual report today that it released 246 state prison convicts during the year ended June 30, while it studied cases of 1,010 inmates. Forty-nine paroles, or eight per cent of those granted, were revoked because the parolees violated terms of their paroles. The board said this was a low average.

Jobs were obtained for 250 of the released prisoners, 151 by the board and 99 by the men themselves.

The board now has 561 parolees under its supervision.

Soldiers En Route Will Bivouac Here Tonight

Roseburg will be visited tonight by approximately 1300 men of the 17th infantry, en route from Fort Ord, Calif., to the Fort Lewis, Wash., area war games. The men will travel in about 400 vehicles and will spend the night at the rifle range in the north part of town.

No special arrangements have been made for entertainment of the visiting troops, other than a street dance on Jackson street, south of Cass street. The regular weekly band concert at 8 p. m., and softball games at Finlay

Cop Beats Man Held as Daughter's Attacker

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—(AP)—An 11-year-old girl lay injured and shocked in a hospital today, while her policeman-father, Russell Chambers, was under investigation for beating the man the child named as her attacker. In jail on a charge of rape was DeWitt Bell, 28, who came here from Portland, Ore., three years ago to work on Treasure Island, he said, after an estrangement from his wife. He has a black eye and a bandaged head.

Inspectors said Bell, who knew the Chambers child slightly, invited her and two neighbor girls, 11 and 9, for an automobile ride, took them to a lonely spot on Twin peaks, fed them intoxicating liquor in the guise of orange juice until they all fell into a sleepy stupor, and then assaulted the Chambers girl.
