DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS. What means this eager anxious throng. That moves with busy haste among. These wondrous gatherings day by day. What means the strange commotion, pray? In accent hush, the throng reply. "Jesus of Nazareth," passeth by. Crowds always followed Jesus. Some were curious to see Him perform some great miracle. But there were always faithful friends who listened for some memorable words to preserve for His people. One day, the crowd following Him on a dusty highway, something caught His attention and He stopped. It's just a dead sparrow, was the whisper that passed through the crowd. But Jesus lifted that small bird and held it in His hand as tenderly as a father holds a babe. With reverent appreciation He said, "Not a sparrow falls to the ground without your heavenly Father's notice. You are of much more value than the sparrow." Then He fashioned a small grave and burying the sparrow He said, My Father is more anxious about you, His children. Have you faith to depend upon Him as do the birds? Seek first the kingdom and all things shall be added unto you. He who places God first in his life, possesses his possession. But he who forgets God, is possessed by his possessions. Amen.
