

Cardinals Regain Leadership Of National League

By JUDSON BAILEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The St. Louis Cardinals are back on top of the National League see-saw today, but their position in the standings is not as important as the fact that Mort Cooper is back with his pitching magic.

Until he developed elbow trouble in June, the 27-year-old righthander figured to be the ace of Billy Southworth's pitching corps. Then, when he had to have an operation nobody knew whether he would pitch better—or not at all.

Yesterday came the real test when Cooper was sent out against the Cincinnati Reds and pitched and batted the Cardinals to a 3-2 11-inning victory that put St. Louis in front of the idle Brooklyn Dodgers again by just a shade. The Cards have a half-game lead but their percentage advantage is only .642 to .6436.

In the only other National League game, the Pittsburgh Pirates took a 4-3 decision over the Chicago Cubs on Lopez' homer with two out in the ninth. It was the Pirates' sixth straight triumph and their 18th in 21 games.

Yanks Lose to Boston.

The New York Yankees dropped a 9-5 verdict to the Boston Red Sox for their fifth loss in seven contests. Newsome limited the Yanks to eight hits. Ted Williams hit his 22nd homer and two singles to lead Boston's 12-hit attack on three New York pitchers.

The defeat did not reduce the Yankees' American league lead, however, for Detroit downed Bob Feller and the Cleveland Indians, 4-3, in 13 innings. Feller struck out 13, but walked 11 and in the eighth inning forced in one run when the bases were loaded.

The Washington Senators sent the Philadelphia Athletics crashing to their fifth straight defeat, 5-4, on six-hit pitching by Hudson and Masterson and an attack led by Catcher Al Early, who supplied two doubles and two singles. Chapman hit a homer and triple for all the A's runs.

The Chicago White Sox went on a hitting spree in the last four innings of a night game, pounding out 17 hits to beat the St. Louis Browns, 11-1, behind the seven-hit hurling of Ross.

Oakland Defeats Seattle; Hollies Maul Beavers, 17-6

(By the Associated Press)

A six-inning pitching duel between Seattle's Soriano and Salveson of Oakland was terminated last night when Soriano just control in the seventh, allowing five hits a sacrifice, and a walk which were good for five runs and permitted the Oaks to win, 6 to 2.

Salveson also starred at bat with two doubles, scoring twice and driving in one run. He allowed only five hits in the game, the second of three Pacific coast league games played this week to be won by the Oaks. Soriano was relieved by Lloyd Brown, veteran lefthander who blanked Oakland the rest of the way but could not save the game.

Meanwhile, Portland's hold on the league cellar is becoming embarrassing.

Trailing Sacramento by 30 1/2 games, the hapless Beavers sank to a new low last night when they absorbed one of the soundest lacerations of the season—a 17 to 6 mauling at the hands of the Hollywood Stars.

Hollywood pounced on Liska and Callahan for 25 hits. The Beavers' five errors contributed to the loss.

Los Angeles chalked up its second straight victory over Sacramento, winning 1 to 0 on Manager Statz' sixth inning single. Flores limited the league leaders to six hits, and permitted only two Solons to reach second base. None reached third.

Pounding Rich for all their runs, the San Francisco Seals turned back San Diego, 9 to 3.

Softball Teams All Even at 1-1

The City Softball league teams were all tied up today with each of the four teams having one win and one loss as a result of the second round of games in the last half of the league play. Dunham's Transfarmen beat Montgomery Ward 12 to 2 last night in the first game of the double-header, and Boucoek's won from Texaco 13 to 10 in the second game.

Montgomery Ward and Dunham's played an interesting game until the last inning, when the Transfarmen pushed across seven runs as the result of five hits and three errors.

In the second game Boucoek's took a lead in the first inning, 4 to 2, and was never headed, although Texaco pressed closely all of the way and trailed by only one run in the sixth inning, but went scoreless in the seventh inning after the Butchers had pushed across two runs in their half of the sixth.

Donkeys to Cavort in Ball Game Here Tonight

A game of donkey baseball, one of the most hilarious exhibitions imaginable, will be presented at Finlay field this evening, starting at 7:30 o'clock, under sponsorship of the Roseburg Lions club. A troupe of trained donkeys will be used for the game, but riders will be recruited from among players of the local softball league.

The Lions club will use the net proceeds in its fund devoted to the purchase of glasses for children in needy families.

When Custer Made His Last Stand... Blitz-Weinhard Was 20 Years Old!

Months after General Custer made his valiant stand on the Little Big Horn in 1876, word of that tragic battle reached Portland. It was news then... it's history now! But on that eventful date, 65 years ago, the beer brewed from the private recipe of Henry Weinhard had been a Northwest favorite for over 20 years.

Today Blitz-Weinhard Guaranteed Satisfying Beer is still brewed from that same recipe... still brewed on the same spot... still brewed from Northwest grain and hops, with pure Bull Run water... still brewed to satisfy you!

85 YEARS OF KNOWING HOW

WE ARE NOT HOLDING OUR USED CARS

to profit at the public's expense!

This Message From FRED B. LOCKWOOD will interest every used car buyer in Roseburg.

Holding used cars for higher prices, as so many dealers are now said to be doing, is gambling, pure and simple—and, at the public's expense.

There is every indication that those who hold them will get higher prices for them. Prices have gone up, and the trend is still higher.

We think that holding used cars is inflationary. We're against such a policy.

The foundation of our business is new cars—and this community has given us record new-car sales this year. We will not now gamble in used cars, at the expense of the public who have given us one of the best years in our history. So—our used cars are priced downward, for immediate clearance.

On our lot, now—to an even greater extent than in recent months—you will find "buys" substantially under the market. We invite you to come in and look them over.
