W. S. OF C. S. HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

LOOKINGGLASS, Aug. 13.—Mrs. Walter Munger very graciously entertained the Women's Society of Christian Service in the grove adjoining her home which had been made lovely with decorations of paper garlands, a large American flag and bouquets of flowers. The long serving table was covered with beautiful drawn-work linen table cloths and centered with an arrangement of small flags. The business session was presided over by the president, Mr. Corvin Hoard and the devotional were conducted by Mrs. Arthur Marsh, who read the message for the day from a beautiful devotional book presented to the society by Mrs. Alice Richey-Ryczynski. Mrs. John Baker was appointed chairman of the needlework committee and authorized to choose her assistants. Mrs. Munger was assisted in serving by Mrs. May LeClerc and Mrs. LaVerne Williams.

In attendance at the meeting were Mrs. Corvin Hoard, Mrs. May LeClerc, Mrs. Elmer Anderson and three small sons, Bobbie, Roger and Jimmie, Mrs. I. B. Howard, Mrs. Nelson Andrus, Miss Zerita Andrus, Mrs. Bess Sutton, Mrs. John Ascott and small son John, Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. W. J. Meredith, Mrs. LaVerne Williams, Mrs. A. M. Robinson, Mrs. John Baker and the hostess, Mrs. Munger and daughter, Mary Esther, and sons, Victor and David. The society will be entertained in September by Mrs. May LeClerc.

POET'S CORNER

A NEWPORT TRAIL

W. TAYLOR COOPER

We know a trail, a winding trail That leads down to the bay, below. It may not be the shortest route, But it's the way we like to go.

Banks of verdure on either side Brush the garments when passing by, And then a little sun-lit glade Spreads out beneath this summer sky.

Soft sigh of breeze among the firs, A brooklet murmurs just below. One of God's quiet, peaceful nooks. So we look up and tell Him so.

Then passing on into the shade, Beneath the arching boughs o'er-head,

There comes the thought: "How much like this The Trail of Life that we all tread."

Then suddenly our eyes behold A widening view across the vale, Where sand dunes rise and fir clad hills, This marks the spot where ends the trail.

The placid waters of the bay, Beyond the bar, the open sea, Again the thought: "How much like this The end of life's long trail will be."

GETTING WORSE!

That "run" in silk hose—dreaded much— In the past, each lady knows, But things have come to a "worse-er" stage, It's now, that run ON hose! (Or maybe without.) —O. C.

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

"They're all hopping mad—the chairman of the house committee was drowning and the life guard saved him!"

Draft Trouble

INDIANAPOLIS—Two letters enlivened the work of Indiana selective service headquarters.

One was from a Marion-county grandmother who offered to go to camp instead of her grandson who still had a year before finishing college.

"I can cook—I can sew. I could help with the washing. Please let me go," she said. "I'm not doing anything at home here."

The other was from a wife on the Ohio river who said she wished her draftee-husband had been sent to Alaska or some other far off place instead of Fort Knox, Ky., right across the river.

The woman complained he "insists on coming home each weekend."

We Give Up

SANTA MONICA, Calif.—Disappearance of $5,700 from the police department safe is still a mystery, after two weeks of slouching.

So red-faced officers have dug in their own pockets to offer a $500 reward.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour 2 pints of bile juice into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills, 10¢ and 25¢.
