

Seattle Shuts Out Hollies; Portland, Oakland Split Two

(By the Associated Press)
Soriano, Seattle's home-grown pitching recruit, took the measure of Hollywood last night in the seventh inning nightcap and pitched a 7-0-0 shutout, first in his professional baseball experience. Soriano's feat was the more significant that it evened up the evening's doubleheader, the initial game of which Hollywood took 9 to 1, on 14 hits, including three successive triples by Frenchy Uhalt.

Bithorn blanked Seattle in the opener in all but the sixth inning when the Rainiers' lone run was scored. This evened the Pacific coast league series at two-all.

The Portland Beavers beat the Oakland Oaks, 7-2, and then the Oaks beat the Beavers, 4-3.

The southerners gathered the greater number of blows—9 to 6—in the opener, but fumbled four times at inopportune moments. This permitted Portland to score six runs on three hits in the fourth inning.

In the nightcap the Beavers gathered 10 hits to the Acorons' 6, but erred twice and so were defeated, Oakland scoring all its runs on a meager four hits in the first inning.

Sacramento stretched its sizable leadership another notch by topping San Francisco for the second successive night, 3-1, while second-place San Diego was bowing to Los Angeles, 10-1.

Five doubles and Weintraub's home run made the Los Angeles victory easy for Humphreys. The

Cardinals' Lead In National Cut To One-Half Game

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
By JUDSON BAILEY
The tangle in the National league is as hopeless of an early solution as a six-day bicycle race on the first day.

The St. Louis Cardinals and the Brooklyn Dodgers simply kept whirling 'round and 'round till one or the other spills off. Then they get up and do it all over again while everybody gets dizzy.

Last night the Cardinals crashed 3-2 in 10 innings at Cincinnati as the Dodgers drummed out a 7-2 triumph over the Phillies to narrow the Cards' margin to half a game—where the matter is bound to rest today, because neither team is scheduled.

In another National league night game the Chicago Cubs sent the Pittsburgh Pirates sprawling to their third straight defeat, 6-4. The New York Giants and Boston Braves divided a doubleheader.

Young sparked the Giants to a five-run lead in the first three frames of the opener by getting two doubles, one with the bases loaded, and New York made it last for a 7-6 victory. Then Lefty Art Johnson pitched a steady seven-hit affair for a 3-1 triumph in the nightcap.

In the American league the New York Yankees also split a bargain bill with the Washington Senators, but even so managed to gain another half game on the Cleveland Indians, who fell into jeopardy of losing even their second place ranking.

The Yanks were whipped in their first game 5-3 by Archie's two-run homer in the 11th inning, but had no trouble taking the second session, 5-1, on the five-hit hurling of Brewer.

The Indians were walloped 9-3 by the St. Louis Browns. Galehouse held the Tribe to seven hits and contributed three singles himself in St. Louis' 16-hit bombardment of four Cleveland hurlers.

This spurred the Boston Red Sox to a 4-0 conquest of the Philadelphia Athletics that lifted Boston within a game and a half of second place.

Newsome came through with a six-hit pitching performance to steer the Detroit Tigers to a 4-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

American Legion Midgets Defeat Older Team, 9-3

A team picked from the squad of American Legion Midgets defeated a group of older players, 9 to 3, in a 5-inning baseball game at Finlay field Wednesday evening.

The Midget team was selected from a large group of younger boys who have been receiving instructions in baseball for the past two months as a part of the supervised program of recreation.

Important TO YOU OWNERS OF HIGH-COMPRESSION CARS
Even if your car has gone less than 10,000 miles, it now may have higher compression than when it left the factory—may knock because of this!

Unfortunate, but true! There is, today, no known way to keep the compression ratio of your motor from changing constantly.
The reason for this is carbon, which accumulates inside today's compact combustion chambers, making them smaller—and your high compression higher than ever. This causes knocking.
You cannot avoid such carbon completely, regardless of what kind of gasoline or oil you use. You can keep removing it, of course, at some expense. You may even get temporary relief by changing the spark adjustment, thereby cutting down your engine's efficiency.
But Shell scientists have a better answer. They've developed a motor fuel that will automatically compensate for these carbon-created higher compressions.
This super motor fuel—Shell Premium—is a blend of clean-burning gasoline fractions . . . a patented, scientifically prepared anti-knock compound . . . and powerful alkylate (similar to that used in 100-octane aviation fuels). What all this sums up to for you is more miles of new-car performance.
It means a quieter, cooler running engine . . . faster and smoother pick-up . . . excellent mileage. And you get all this from Shell Premium for 2¢ more than "regular"—or just about $1 a month extra, if you drive the average amount.
