American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER

With one of the biggest years since its inception ahead of the American Legion and its auxiliary it is most fitting that the local groups have chosen so wisely in electing their commander and president. For the second time Roseburg has chosen a team of husband and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Riegel. Both are most familiar with the program of the Legion and will be highly efficient in carrying it out. Bess Riegel, who was elected by a unanimous vote of the auxiliary, has been a faithful officer of both the local unit and the state department. Already she has planned a happy balance between work and play for the next few months. Because she is a state chairman and must necessarily devote much of her time to state work it will be more necessary for every member to do her part in making the unit work successful.

At a joint installation ceremony to be held at Drain next Wednesday night with the Reedsport and Drain groups, Mr. and Mrs. Riegel will be inducted into office. Roseburg will act as installing officers. All those in the installing team are urged to be at the armory at 7:30 Monday night to practice.

Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock the Legion will present another radio program. So much of interest is transpiring of late that you will not want to miss this. If Victor Micelli, district commander, appears less "radiant" than usual Wednesday morning it will be because he and many other Legionnaires will have returned Tuesday night from a trip to Klamath Falls. "Vic" is to be installing officer for the joint meeting at Drain. Mrs. Micelli will act as sergeant-at-arms with a Legionnaire. Auxiliary officers will be attired in their prettiest formal and with Legionnaire uniforms it will be a colorful ceremony. Refreshments will follow this joint installation.

Auxiliary officers from Umpqua unit to be installed are: Mrs. Irvin Riegel, president; Mrs. S. W. Van Voorst and Mrs. J. M. Judd, vice-presidents; Mrs. J. E. Pounds, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Midland, treasurer; Mrs. Ira Pierce, historian; Mrs. Hubert Graham, Mrs. Cam Carson, sergeants-at-arms, and Mrs. Gave Mowery, chaplain. Mrs. Claude Baker is retiring president; James Young, retiring commander. Following their installation the Riegels will announce their various chairmen.

POET'S CORNER

WAR SPEAKS
In the beginning I came—
I and the changeless sun,
Through history's epochs I have moved

With the lure of drums and marching feet,
I have brought to men,
On shell-strewn battlefields,
Ghastly and gruesome death—
Some minds have died alive.

I am Humanity's cross,
Through Travail of bloodshed and strife,
I have brought
Liberty to some, slavery to others.

I have made
Nations flower and civilizations die,
Exultantly, I move on through the cons of time—
I and the changeless sun.

—Malinda Oederkirk.
