American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
 President Mrs. Irvin Riegel and Commander Irvin Riegel were installed Wednesday night at a joint installation held at Drain. Drain, Reedsport and Roseburg posts and units were installed by District Commander Micelli, who also compiled the impressive joint ceremony. He was assisted by District President Bernice Beard and Past District President Peg Young.

Presiding at opening exercises were officers from the three posts and units. Commander Goodman of Drain opened the meeting, thereupon presenting Commander Victor Micelli, who in turn presented his installing staff of Roseburg post and unit. Assisting in installing officers were E. A. Post, Christine Micelli, Peg Young, Vincent Malone, Sam Carson, Kathryn Ullrich, Homer Grow, Greta Caskey, J. E. Pounds and Florence Grow at the piano.

Past and present district and department officers were presented to the assembly, the women receiving beautiful corsages. Commanders James Young and Goodman were presented with commander's pins by Mr. Micelli. Bernice Beard, district president from Marshfield, was again introduced and after speaking briefly presented past president's pins to Presidents Marguerite La Grandier and Lois Varney Baker.

District Commander Micelli introduced Past President Peg Young, who proceeded to install Commanders Irvin Riegel, Roseburg; Harold Lewis, Reedsport; and Claire-La Grandier, Drain; Presidents Bess Riegel, Roseburg and Edna Kenney, Drain. Alice Hogan, Reedsport, had been previously installed.

Reedsport's new Commander Lewis closed the meeting. Preceding closure new officers were called upon to speak. Each pledged his and her loyalty and labors to the American Legion cause.

Past President Christine Micelli so startled Past President Baker by requesting her to present herself before the chair that for once she was speechless. While Christine extolled the good things accomplished by yours truly for the Roseburg unit, this humble person was still gasping. Christine uses a special brand of blarney. However, the gift presented by officers working with me during this past year is a beautiful reminder of associations not soon to be forgotten. Only another past president knows. The past president's pin is another beautiful gold and jeweled symbol of a year which we have tried to make successful. Bess Riegel has asked this past president to act as publicity chairman this year. It is much easier to do that for some one other than myself.

A bountiful feed was put on by Drain with Roseburg assisting. Made loquacious with the bountiful banquet speeches were heard which stirred the group to renewed determination to do all possible for our country and communities this year. The beautiful, unusual decorations were made by Drain's new president, Edna Kenney.

The first meeting of Umpqua post and unit will be Sept. 2 at the armory with President Bess Riegel officiating.

Record Ruined

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—For months officers drove the police department's safety patrol car without so much as a pin scratch marring its lily white surface. To keep that record intact, they always parked it in the city's safest place—the police station basement.

So, Officer Francis Scott's indignation was understandable when he went to the basement and found the car badly smashed. A hit-run motorist had backed into it.

HITLER
 Despoiler of the universe!
 Thou art the Christ, you say;
 Show to me thy miracles!
 Hast thou relieved thy people?
 'Tis robes of him were pure,
 And He loved little children,
 But thine,
 O, murderous one,
 Are stained with blood
 Of these same innocents!
