MR. AND MRS. ALEXANDER HONORED ON WEDDING ANNIVERSARY ON SUNDAY

One of the largest of wedding anniversary surprise parties this season was enjoyed at the beautiful maple grove on Kent creek near Dillard Sunday, when a group of relatives honored Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alexander on their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary. Shirley Clayton, a cousin of Mr. Alexander, had charge of the affair.

The relatives surprising the Alexanders began gathering in the grove in the forenoon and a picnic dinner was served at one-thirty o'clock at one long table. Five large cakes, decorated especially for the occasion, were cut and served. The cakes were baked by Mrs. Susan Alexander, Mrs. Jessie Hayes, Mrs. Alice Hubbell, Mrs. Theresa Troxel and Mrs. Allene Cleveland.

Following the dinner many beautiful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander from Mrs. Theresa Troxel, Mrs. Thelma Troxel, both of Eugene; Mrs. Susan Alexander, Mrs. Agnes Zachary, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayes and Murrel Alexander, all of Roseburg; Miss Dorothy James, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis and daughter, Sonja Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hubbell and children, John and Marcella, all of Sitkum; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Gourley and son, Larry, of Sutherlin; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rice and children, Jacquelyn and John, of Portland; Shirley Clayton, Miss Darlene Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Clayton and son, Gordon, J. D. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Clayton, all of Dillard, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cleveland and daughter, Darla, of Camas Valley.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Alexander have been residents of the Dillard community for a number of years and have many friends, who wish their continued good health and happiness as well as many more happy reunions. Mr. Alexander was born July 13, 1885, at Brockway and is the son of Mrs. Susan Alexander of Roseburg. Mrs. Alexander was born June 23, 1895, in Rathdrum, Idaho, and is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Dingman, of North Bend. They are the parents of six children: Mrs. Veryl Gourley, of Sutherlin; Mrs. Thelma Willett, of Baltimore, Maryland; Mrs. Allene Cleveland, of Camas Valley, and Bud, Kenneth and Darlene Alexander (the latter three still being at their home in Dillard).

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Frances Lintott played "Liebestraum" and "To a Wild Rose" by McEwell, followed by Mrs. Hugh Whipple singing, "I Love You Dear" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Lintott. The piano was arranged on the terrace. With the opening strains of the wedding procession from Lohengrin's bridal chorus, the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, met the bridegroom at the improvised altar.

At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Lintott played Mendelssohn's wedding recessional and during the reception played "Under the Leaves" by Thome.

The bride was charming in a suit of beige wool with brown accessories and a corsage of brown orchids. The bride's mother wore an attractive peach-colored chiffon flower crepe dress and a corsage of gardenias and stephanotis.

Following the ceremony, a charming reception was held. The dining room flowers were from the gardens of Mrs. M. F. Rice and Mrs. T. R. Burr. The tea table, covered by an exquisite cloth, was centered with a bowl of glad-tilly, asters, petunias, jasmine and baby's breath all in white, with matching white tapers and a beautiful three-tiered white decorated wedding cake, which was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

MR. AND MRS. ILES CELEBRATE FORTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Story Iles celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary Saturday evening at their home by inviting a group of friends to a delightful party.

Attractive bouquets of summer flowers were arranged about the rooms. Lovely gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Iles and at midnight a charming supper was served.

Those enjoying the occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Iles included: Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fredrickson, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Lehrbach, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Jels and their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bartels, of Oakland, Calif.

MRS. C. E. JOHNSON HONORED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER ON TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Agee entertained at a very lovely six o'clock dinner at their home on Cobb street Tuesday evening, having as guests Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson in honor of the birthday anniversary of the latter.

A very beautifully decorated birthday cake graced the table. Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours.

Marry at Beautiful Home Wedding

Mrs. Samuel McGaughey

Miss Marjorie Pearl Guiley, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Guiley, of Roseburg, and Lt. Samuel McGaughey, of Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGaughey, of Castle Rock, Wash., were married at a very impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon, August 17th, at three o'clock at the attractive home of the bride's parents on the North Umpqua river in Riversdale, Rev. Melville T. Wire, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few close friends of the couple.

An improvised altar was arranged for the ceremony, by the formation of a beautiful gladioli bordered lattice-work archway outlining the French doors in the living room. The doors were opened onto the terrace, showing a gorgeous view of the North Umpqua river and the attractive garden of the home as a background. Apricot-colored gladioli, golden privet and huckleberry formed attractive basket bouquets flanking the archway. The fireplace was banked with Picardy pink gladioli and white summer blossoms and outlined in greenery.

Following the reception, Lt. and Mrs. McGaughey left for coast points on their honeymoon, after which they will go to Moffett field to make their home.

On Saturday evening, August 9th, the bride-elect was the inspiration for a charming shower given in Eugene by Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Striker. Besides the guest of honor and Lt. McGaughey, those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Linden, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Budd Yokum, Miss Katherine Gray, Miss Helen Stough, Scott Sutherland, Miss Edna Johnson, Mac McGaughey and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Striker.
