Let's Go to the Fairs

It is fair time again. The first of five community fairs to be held in this county is in progress today at Canyonville.

Next Tuesday will be fair day at Glendale—the date, remember is Tuesday, August 26.

The Lookingglass fair will be held Thursday, the 28th.

Sutherland has two days scheduled for the fair there—Friday and Saturday, August 29 and 30.

The fair at Drain, also a two-day fair, is set for a later date being planned for the 12th and 13th of September.

These community fairs take the place of the old county fair and apparently are not only individually successful, but the plan of having community fairs seems to be, on the whole, a better one than having one central fair.

And, speaking of fairs, the Oregon State fair opens week after next—September 1. The state fair this year will be the 80th annual Oregon State fair.

The Monday following the state fair our schools will open for business. It has been a mighty short summer, hasn't it?

Italy Takes What's Left

An interesting sidelight on the Nazi occupation of Greece recently came to light in an eyewitness story by Ralph Kent, who was there when the Germans came.

It seems that the Germans naturally seized most of the food in sight, at what they could, and sent the rest back to Germany.

Somehow that looks like an adequate forecast of what Italy may look forward to in event of Italian victory—Mussolini would get whatever was left after Hitler had taken everything he wanted.

Not All Wasted

NOT by any means all of the money being poured out for national defense is being wasted. Some of it—nobody knows just how much—is going for purposes that will be served after the emergency has passed.

At this conference, arrangements for flying American-made planes to Siberia and on across to the fighting front (or keeping them at Vladivostok for possible use against Japan) are expected to be worked out.

THE Germans today mention counter-attacks by masses of red army tanks on the lower Dnieper. These attacks are intended to cover the retreat of Russian forces across the river, which at this point is a mile wide.

Remember this in connection with Marshal Budyenny's difficult task of withdrawing under German pounding to a new defense line.

Much depends on his success or failure. IN London, there are reports (without official confirmation) of a 48-hour ultimatum to Iran to expel some 3000 German "tourists" and technicians.

British and Russian troops are said to be poised on the frontier, ready to move if Iran balks. Iran has called up additional reservists, bringing her army to 200,000.

(Remember at this point Ankara rumors a few days ago to the effect that Iran will put up a show of resistance to British-Russian demands but WON'T FIGHT.)

WASHINGTON dispatches today tell us that allocations and commitments for the defense program now top 51 BILLIONS.

The present congress, which began January 3 of this year, has appropriated $32,782,370,190 (odd cents omitted.)

HEHE (roughly) is how the money is to be spent: Army 25 billions. Navy 9 billions. Other agencies (cargo ships and such) 3 billions.

In addition, another lease-lend appropriation is coming up—probably around seven billions.

TWO businessmen witnesses today tell the senate finance committee that non-defense expenditures COULD AND SHOULD be reduced.

Of course they should. Any businessman knows that. The trouble is the politicians DON'T know it and think the public wants them to go on spending like a drunken sailor.

A GERMAN plane flies over Iceland, but drops no bombs. It is a look-see flight.

You never can tell what will follow such reconnaissances.

Yanks Lose Third Straight Since Absence of DiMag

(By GAYLE TALBOT (Associated Press Sports Writer)) It has been suspected all season that the Yankees consist of Joe DiMaggio and a bunch of other ball players, and the things that have been happening to the club since DiMag turned his ankle Tuesday in Detroit only point up the fact.

Without their big puncher, the Yankees have lost three straight games, making only two scratch hits in one game and submitting rather meekly in the pinches. When Bagby of the Cleveland Indians checked them yesterday, 5 to 4, it was almost too much.

DiMaggio seems to supply most of the inspiration for the Yanks. Charlie Keller, who is a slugger when Joe is in this hitting in front of him, has hit safely only once in the past three contests, and that was a scratch single.

Luckily for the New Yorkers, their lead is ridiculously long, so the temporary absence of DiMaggio is nothing to worry about. Chicago Twice Beaten.

Their past two losses cost the Yanks nothing in the standings, for the Chicago White Sox cooled off abruptly and dropped two straight to Boston, yesterday by a score of 2-1. Dobson held the runners-up to six hits, and the Red Sox thereby climbed within a game and a half of second place.

At Detroit, McCosky came to bat with two out and two mates on base in the last of the ninth inning and cracked a very satisfying home run. The blow eliminated a five-run last-ditch rally that licked Washington, 5-4, and handed Carrasquel his first defeat in seven starts.

Hayes clouted a seventh-inning homer as the Athletics nosed out the St. Louis Browns, 5-4. Brooklyn's game and a half lead over the St. Louis Cards in the National league remained unchanged as both won yesterday and moved a notch nearer their breathlessly-awaited clash tomorrow at Ebbets field.

The Dodgers scored an easy one over the Chicago Cubs, 8 to 5, but the crippled Cardinals had a struggle to overcome the Phillies, 4 to 2, in 10 innings. Cincinnati's headlong dash toward the top was halted by Tobin of the Boston Braves, who set the world champions down 9-1, with the aid of some lusty hitting by Max West.

Pittsburgh ganged Bowman for three runs in the eighth, including a homer by Van Robays, to down the collapsible Giants, 5-3.

Freitas Shuts Out Rainiers; Turpin Retaliates on Sacs

(By The Associated Press) It was more than just another victory last night for Tony Freitas of the Sacramento Senators' pitching staff.

The little southpaw, hurling shutout ball in the opening game of a doubleheader with Seattle on "Tony Freitas night" at the Sacramento ball park, not only won his 19th game of the season but stopped a three-game losing streak by his team.

Sacramento fell back into losing ways in the second game, but that was not Freitas' fault, because somebody else was on the mound. The score in each game was 3-0. Turpin was Seattle's hurler in the second game, yielding five scattered hits.

The split doubleheader gave the Rainiers the series with a 3-1 margin, leaving them five full games behind Sacramento that only a month ago was 10 games ahead of the herd, and once was 16 games up on everybody.

At San Diego, the third-place Padres fell victims to Portland, 6-2, in a game that saw the cellar-dwelling Beavers score six runs on 13 hits.

Oakland licked the Los Angeles Angels, 6-2. This victory, while the Hollywood Stars were humbling the San Francisco Seals, 3 to 2, gave the Oaks a sixth-place tie with the Seals.

though he lost the game. The other tally was given up by Lloyd Brown. Just to show that they liked him, Sacramentans and league officials gave Freitas a load of personal gifts and the league presented him with a lifetime pass.

Hilcher of Portland held the San Diego Padres to five hits while his mates were making 13 off Olsen and Dilbeck. Hilcher was in danger only in the fifth, when the Padres scored two runs on three singles and a walk.

Louis-Nova Battle Put Off Until September 29

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—(AP)—At the request of Joe Louis' managers, Promoter Mike Jacobs today postponed the heavyweight champion's title fight with Lou Nova from Sept. 19 at the Yankee stadium to Sept. 29 at the Polo grounds.

Julian Black and John Roxborough, managers of the heavy weight king, said they didn't believe Louis could get in shape by the date originally set and asked for a two-week postponement. Jacobs, however, refused to permit that much time for fear the fight would conflict with the world series, in which the Yankees are expected to represent the American league. The site was shifted to the home of the Giants for the same reason.
