MARKET REPORTS

WOOL

BOSTON, Aug. 23.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin today says:

"Activity in the wool market this week, so far as new business is concerned, has been at low ebb. Shipments have been going out steadily to the mills as wools are graded against past sales. What demand has been in evidence has been mostly for fine wools at firm rates, although a little medium wool has been sold at steady prices.

"Activity in the west, also, has been limited to a few scattered lots at prices which show little change.

"Reports that the government was about to take over the unsold wool supply and to purchase the South American clips have been categorically denied by Washington officials in interest, who assert that the supply of wool is ample for military and civilian requirements.

"Consumption at the mills continues heavy, with continuing interest in men's wear for spring. "Foreign markets are generally dull.

"Mohair is slow and not quotably changed."

Quotations unchanged.
