

Around the County

Days Creek

DAYS CREEK, Aug. 26.—Mrs. Vern Lerwell, Miss Winnie Rainville and the latter's father, Joe Rainville, were attending to business matters in Roseburg recently.

Mrs. A. E. Moore, who accompanied her son, Delbert, to Portland early last week returned to her home here Friday. Delbert underwent an operation on his eye Friday morning at the Doernbecher hospital. Mrs. Moore's niece and nephew, Jean and Bobbie Duncan, who had undergone tonclectomies Thursday at the same hospital, also returned to their home here Friday.

Mrs. Frank House and son, Gene, of Pinehurst, were guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wright, over the week-end. Coming by way of Glendale they were joined there by Mrs. Jack Lewis who accompanied them here and was also a guest at the Wright home. When Mrs. House returned home Sunday evening her older son, Barton, who had been here with his grandparents for several weeks, returned with her while Gene remained here for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Poole, Miss Edna Mae Poole and Miss Gem Hutchinson were among those going to the huckleberry patch in the Huckleberry lake vicinity Sunday.

Joe Saffley of Cottage Grove has been attending to business matters and visiting here for several days. While here he has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Fato.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moore and sons, Leon and Jimmie, were business visitors in Roseburg Saturday. They were accompanied here in the evening by their daughter, Miss Nettie, who remained until Sunday evening when she returned to Roseburg.

Archie Ferguson was attending to business matters in Roseburg Monday. When he returned to his home his niece, Miss Janet Ferguson, who has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lander, Jr., at Glengary for several days, returned with him. Miss Janet whose home is in Alameda, Calif., has been spending the summer with relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Saubert of Florence were guests during the week-end at the Tiller home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Saubert.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry and Guy Fender spent several days last week on a field trip. They returned to their home at the Tiller ranger station Thursday.

Mrs. A. S. Tison and her son, Jim, who had been visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan at La Crescenta, Calif., for the past couple of weeks, returned to their home here Saturday. They were met in Medford by Mr. Tison.

Glenn Kunkle was a business visitor in Canyonville Saturday. Mrs. Maggie Snyder, her grandson, Richard Snyder, her granddaughter, Barbara Snyder, and Raymond Snyder, were shopping and visiting in Roseburg Saturday. Miss Barbara returned a short time ago from Portland, where she had been a guest at the home of her aunt for several weeks.

Mrs. Irene Clark returned Tuesday from San Jose, Calif., where she had been visiting her daughter and will be a guest at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clark, for a few days before going to Roseburg where she has accepted employment.

Will Finn, a member of the Portland police force, has been spending several days here visiting his sister, Mrs. R. K. Paris, his nephew, Lawrence Michaels, and his nieces, Mrs. Ray Wright and Mrs. Ivan Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ayers and son, Robert, were guests over the week-end at the Fritz Snyder home. They were en route to their home in Wallowa after spending the summer in Medford where Mr. Ayers has been taking flying instruction. Earlier in the summer the Snyders had as their guests Mrs. Snyder's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bennett of Salem. Mrs. Snyder's nephews, Tommy and Jimmy Rice, of Myrtle Creek also spent a couple of weeks here attending the water safety classes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gram and son, Charles, of Salem, have recently been guests at the home of Mrs. Gram's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chaney.

The newly constructed Copco service line from the Days Creek store to the upper Days creek country has been energized as far as the Fritz Snyder home.

Mrs. Gordon Clark and daughter, Sharon, and Mrs. Pete Ulam left Friday evening for Silver Lake, Wash., to visit Mr. Ulam who is employed by the forest service there. They were joined at Oregon City by Mr. Clark, who had been receiving medical attention at a Portland hospital for several days, and who accompanied them on the remainder of the trip. When they returned

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

'Forced Into Marriage,' Her Hubby Says

Husband of pretty Esther Schlieser, Thalhammer, 14, above, filed suit in a Los Angeles court for annulment of the marriage charging he was "forced" into marrying the girl by her parents. The husband, Karl W. Thalhammer, a wealthy manufacturer of camera equipment, is 60. They separated 11 days after the wedding ceremony.

(Acme Telephoto)

they were over-night guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Connor in Portland.

C. C. Hill, Ed Pence and George Ross were among those attending the mining hearing conducted Tuesday in Grants Pass by Senator Rufus Holman.

Henry Raehor, who for a number of years has been stationed at the Steamboat CCC camp, is spending some time at his home on Days creek.

Jessie James Friday rejoined his company at the South Umpqua Falls CCC camp after having spent several weeks in Louisiana with his family. He was formerly at Camp Gasquet.

Saturday Bruce Ferguson visited Mrs. Ferguson, who is recovering from a recent major operation at Mercy hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil White recently had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carter and family of Indio, Calif. Mrs. Clark and Mrs. White are sisters. Mr. and Mrs. White and their daughters, Sandra and Sally, came here from Indio, some time ago and are making their home on the Baume place on upper Days creek.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hill recently took their granddaughter, Carolyn Hill, to her home in Portland. She had been spending the summer with them, having come here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hill, the Fourth of July.

Mrs. Wade Worthington and daughter, Miss Beverly, and son, Junior, were over-night guests Friday, at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Conn, at Melrose. Friday evening Mrs. Worthington attended the meeting of the Past Noble Grand club in Roseburg and was presented a very lovely birthday cake in recognition of her birthday anniversary which occurred Saturday. On Saturday she was honored with a charming birthday dinner at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John William Robertson, in Roseburg. Those attending were Mrs. Worthington, Miss Beverly and Junior, Mrs. H. P. Conn, Mrs. Laura Robertson, Miss Camille and John Marvin Robertson and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson. En route home Saturday Mrs. Worthington stopped at the Lewis ranch near Myrtle Creek to call for a short time on her brother, H. W. Conn.

Mrs. John Ferguson greatly enjoyed a visit over the week-end with relatives from Kansas who arrived Saturday and remained until Tuesday morning. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Eikenberry, Miss Mayme Johnson, Miss Olga Baker and Edwin Baker, all of Liberty, Kansas. Mrs. Eikenberry and Miss Johnson are nieces of Mrs. Ferguson. Before coming here they had visited relatives in Colorado and Utah and upon leaving they went to Marshfield planning to follow the coast to Newport, from where they expected to go to Portland and on to Yakima, Yellowstone and other places of interest en route home. Sunday they and Mr. and Mrs.

Ferguson visited Bruce Ferguson at Tiller while Monday they went to Roseburg accompanied by Mrs. Ferguson, who is a patient at Mercy hospital and also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lander, Sr., at Glengary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wright and their house guests, Mrs. Frank House and sons, Gene and Barton, and Mrs. Jack Lewis, were among those going to the huckleberry patch Sunday.

Jean Duncan, who underwent a tonclectomy in Portland last week became very ill early Tuesday morning and was taken to Roseburg for medical attention. She is reported to be much better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Miles of Coquille were guests last week at the home of Mrs. Miles' uncle, J. A. Worthington. During the week-end they and Mr. and Mrs. Worthington enjoyed a trip to Diamond and Crater lakes and on to Bend where they were over-night guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Van Allen, former Days Creek residents. They returned by way of McKenzie pass stopping at Springfield to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoffdal, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worthington.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Currier and son, Dale, of Saginaw, were guests during the week-end at the home of Mrs. Currier's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Neet of Salem recently visited for a short time at the home of Mrs. Pete Ulam. They were returning to Salem after a vacation trip to Crater lake. Mr. Neet, who is now assistant manager for the Oregonian was at one time stationed at the South Umpqua Falls CCC camp.

Over-night visitors Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Worthington included Mrs. William Wuorinen, her father, J. Taylor, Mrs. Etella Parmelee and daughter, Louise and Mrs. Marietta Luna, all of Portland. They were en route to Los Angeles. Mrs. Wuorinen has many friends here as she resided in the neighborhood for a couple of years while Mr. Wuorinen was assistant high school instructor.

With Major Hoops

Melrose

MELROSE, Aug. 26.—Carl Seeley spent the last week-end visiting friends at Florence and Mapleton, and returned to his home Monday evening.

Jack Lang returned home Wednesday from Mercy hospital, where he received medical care for the past three weeks.

Mrs. C. E. Reece and sons, Ted, and Roger, are enjoying a vacation at Bandon.

John Richards and son, Bud, left Monday evening for Myrtle Point, where the latter is employed.

Mrs. J. E. Ison returned home Thursday from a two-months visit with relatives in West Virginia, and Kentucky. Her sister, Mrs. Langford, accompanied her on the way home as far as Denver, Colo., where she resides. She has visited at Melrose with her sister, and will be remembered by several Melrose people.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodge, of Long Beach, Calif., visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Richards, and family and last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Richards, their son, Bud, and daughters, Miss Walthea, and Miss Ruth, went to Steamboat, for dinner and returned home by Diamond lake and Crater lake. The Hodge family have visited at Melrose on a number of occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Seeley left Saturday morning for Orphena, Idaho, to visit for a week with the latter's brother and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holmquist and son, Robert, and daughter, Patty and Miss Alice Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson and daughter, Retta, all left Friday to enjoy a few days vacationing at Marshfield and Empire.

W. M. Morgan left last Saturday for South Bend, Wash., where he joined his wife and where employment was awaiting him. He has spent the past year assisting V. S. Woodruff with his work.

C. E. Reece, Melrose merchant, is having the interior of his store repainted. The work is being done by George Handy.

W. R. Van Ornum spent the last week-end at his home. He returned to the hospital Sunday evening.

Mrs. George Sundberg and son, Donald, and daughter, Donna, went to Drain Sunday to visit for two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartholomy.

C. H. Atterbury, of Roseburg, was a business visitor at Melrose Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Belle and son, Mervin, and daughter, Lea, of Las Vegas, Nev., arrived Sunday evening to visit Mrs. Belle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Wandell at Landers Lookout, and visit other relatives and friends. The Belle family formerly resided at Millwood before moving last winter to Nevada. They will return to Las Vegas in about three weeks.

Lookingglass

LOOKINGGLASS, Aug. 27.—Mrs. Chas. Green has sufficiently recovered from her recent operation to be removed to her home from Mercy hospital.

Miss Alice Bostick of Roseburg was a guest for several days the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh.

Vacationing for two weeks at the home of Mrs. May LeClerc are her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Anderson, and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Rell Dismukes of Los Angeles. The party enjoyed a two-day outing on the North Umpqua the early part of last week. Later in the week they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. DeNeccocha and son, Andy Joe, also of Los Angeles, and the group enjoyed several days at Umpqua beach, near Winchester Bay, salmon fishing and camping. During the week Mrs. LeClerc's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. LeClerc and children, Raul and Yvonne, of Portland, arrived to stay over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McLaughlin, who came north with the Andersens and Dismukes and later went to Tacoma for a few days' visit with the Everett Hodges family, returned on Sunday evening to spend the remainder of the week with Mrs. LeClerc and party.

Miss Mildred Kruse, a former grade teacher here and now teaching at Yoncalla, spent Monday and part of Tuesday as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meredith and children, Lila, Claire and Charles, went to Rice creek Sunday to visit the former's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Meredith, and meet Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dare of Pasadena, Calif.

Mrs. Dare is a niece of Mrs. J. J. Meredith. After spending a few days at Rice creek, Mr. and Mrs. Dare will return home via Crater lake and the coast route.

Preparations for the West Douglas county fair which will be held here Thursday, Aug. 28, are well under way. A hot luncheon will be served at noon by a committee from the P. T. A., proceeds of which will be applied on the 4-H scholarship fund sponsored by the P. T. A. A refreshment stand will also be operated by the grange. An interesting program of music, skits, games, etc., is being arranged and Rev. Perry Smith of Roseburg has consented to give a patriotic talk. Premium lists have been mailed to the adjoining communities included in this fair district and a large attendance is anticipated.

The opening date for school is still in abeyance but will be announced as soon as it has been definitely arranged. The staff of grade teachers is now complete and includes, Mrs. Fred Richard for 7th and 8th grade room, Miss Geraldine Williams of Monmouth, for the 5th and 6th grade room, Mrs. Helen Saar for the 3rd and 4th grade room and Mrs. Lou Marsters of Roseburg for the 1st and 2nd grades. Prof. James Burton will continue as principal of the high school, assisted by Miss Helen Wooden. The additional teacher for the high school has not yet been definitely chosen.

Azalea

AZALEA, Aug. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Smith and Miss Marjorie Booth shopped in Grants Pass Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Safranek visited Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Farnam. They were en route to their home in Folsom, Calif., after spending several days at Eugene on business.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clare were in Roseburg on business Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coyle and daughter, Ellen, from Orland, Calif., visited a couple of days the first of the week with Mrs. Coyle's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Jantzer. They also visited other friends and relatives.

Joe Anderson from Camp Roberts, Calif., visited several days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Loran Fowler and Miss Alice Booth from Medford visited here Wednesday and Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Halbert Booth. Alice remained here for a longer visit.

Lemos Beats Archibald in Featherweight Bout

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Richie Lemos of Los Angeles who recently won the featherweight championship, National Boxing Association model, from Petey Scalzo, last night chased Joey Archibald all over the ring in a 10-round exhibition to win the world's title. Archibald, a Providence, R. I., youth, is New York-recognized feather king.

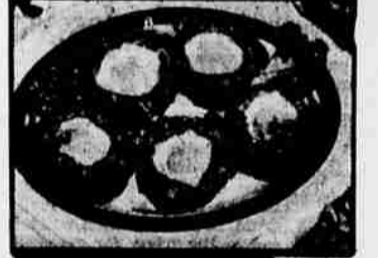

DERIDDER, La.—Weary of a menu which included much corned beef, a medical detachment of maneuverers near here dispatched Private Joe Hizem to town for "store bought" food.

Private Hizem's contribution: A supply of corned beef.

COOKBOOKLETS Nos. 1 to 10 NOW ON SALE

Egg Dishes ARE HEALTHFUL...

And Surprisingly Easy to Make with this Amazing Cookbooklet to Show You the Way!

Eggs have been known for years as a health food, and recent discoveries of valuable vitamins have verified the importance of eggs in the daily diet. The unusual variety of recipes for eggs, either alone or in combination with vegetables, meats, fruits, and other foods makes it easy to serve eggs frequently without having menus that seem monotonous. The recipes in this new Cookbooklet, compiled for you by expert home economists, prove the versatility of eggs as a perfect food for every meal, from breakfasts to midnight snacks. There are appetizers and canapes . . . baked, poached, fried, creamed, and scrambled eggs . . . custards, souffles, pancakes, salads, beverages, sauces and garnishes . . . the wonderful selection will keep you supplied with ideas for every day of the year!

EGG COOKBOOKLET NOW ON SALE

10¢ each With One Coupon from Page 2 of This Newspaper.

The first 10 Cookbooklets in this amazing series of 20 are now available and may be obtained at once. These booklets cover snacks, leftovers, cakes, poultry, pies, soups, salads, meat, fish, sea food, and eggs in complete details! Recipes, suggestions and beautiful, informative illustrations! Get the first 10 right away, then claim a new one each week thereafter.

ALL YOU NEED DO to obtain each Cookbooklet in this amazing offer is to present ONE coupon from page 2 of this newspaper, with 10c. at our business office. Hurry—take advantage of a truly unusual opportunity to own a marvelous household library—a veritable encyclopedia of cooking and homemaking that will make your daily menu-planning easier and more interesting. The first ten booklets are ready—get yours now. To order by mail use form at left.

Special Demonstration

Mr. I. I. Stewart

Factory Representative

for CANTILEVER SHOES

will be in our store

Friday and Saturday, August 29 and 30, and Tuesday, Sept. 2

In consultation and with the complete line of CANTILEVER orthopedic and dress shoes, including styles for fall. Mr. Stewart will orthograph your feet and analyze your shoe problems free of charge. You may select any shoe from this factory sample line and get them in your size without extra cost. High, medium and low heels. New fall styling and fall materials.

ABRAHAM'S Department Store

121 N. Jackson St. Roseburg

COOKBOOKLET COUPON

This Coupon and

10¢

entitles bearer to a cookbooklet at the News-Review office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Use This Form for Mail Orders. ROSEBURG NEWS-REVIEW, ROSEBURG, OREGON. Please send me the Cookbooklets circled below. I enclose 15c and one coupon for each booklet (10c per book; 5c for postage and handling). Name: Address: City: State:

ROSEBURG NEWS-REVIEW