BOISE FAMILY HOLD REUNION AT DIAMOND LAKE

The Boise family held a reunion at Diamond lake last week. Those present were Mrs. Charles W. Boise, daughters, Anne and Mary, and son, Charles P., of London, England, in this country during the war, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bell, daughter, Barbara, and son, David, of Palo Alto, Calif.; Watson E. Boise and Eugene Boise, and a neighbor, Bob Molloy, of Roseburg. They went to the lake Wednesday by way of the North Umpqua road and returned by the Tiller-Trail route on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Boise, of Prineville, Oregon, and Mrs. Boise's niece and a friend joined the party at the lake for Thursday and Friday.

In addition to boating and fishing a number hiked to the look-out station on Hemlock butte. A number also rode horseback to the timberline on Mt. Thielsen and from there around the mountain, a distance of 15 miles in all. David and Barbara Bell and Charles Boise climbed to the top of Mt. Thielsen, which it will be remembered had not been accomplished till quite recent years, first by the "Crag Rats" of eastern Oregon.

The weather at the lake was fine and the outing much enjoyed.

Cassy-Parrott-Casey Bridge Luncheons Are Charming Affairs at Hotel Umpqua Friday and Saturday

Two of the most beautiful parties ever given in Roseburg were enjoyed by over eighty guests Friday and Saturday at the Hotel Umpqua Civic club room, when Miss Rosa B. Parrott and her sister, Mrs. B. Casey, and the latter's daughter, Miss Helen Casey, entertained at two charming bridge-luncheons.

The long luncheon table was arranged in the shape of a capital I. Picardy gladioli and arrangements of fern were placed attractively the length of the table, while low bowls of pale pink, blue and orchid hydrangeas were arranged at the ends of the table. Asparagus fern sprays, interspersed with pink Martha Washington geranium blossoms and exquisite favor cups and pastel-colored placecards completed the very attractive summer motif.

The three-course fried chicken luncheon was served to forty-two guests on Friday and forty-one guests on Saturday. Mrs. Joseph Cawthorne, of San Francisco (niece of Miss Parrott and Mrs. Casey and a cousin of Miss Helen Casey), was a special guest.

Huge bouquets of zinnias, gladioli and other colorful summer blossoms were attractively arranged about the Civic club room, while the lobby of the hotel was decorated with similar bouquets.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Julia Bacher won the high score for the afternoon's contract bridge play with Mrs. C. W. Wharton winning the second high score. On Saturday, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter won the high score with Mrs. L. K. Fies winning the second high score.

The Business and Professional Women held their last picnic meeting of this year at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott on the bank of the North Umpqua river.

The committee for the evening was Mrs. Story Iles, Miss Vera Fredrickson, Mrs. Carrie Bell, Miss Elnor Sherk and Miss Ina Farnsworth. The evening was spent very pleasantly visiting and singing.

The following members and guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rullison, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott and daughter, Marjorie, Mrs. Blanche Boyer, Mrs. Margaret Brown, Mrs. L. J. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Spencer, Mrs. Arlene Myers, Mrs. Alvia Wetherell, Mrs. Florence Sneedaker, Joe Murphy, Mrs. Frances Lintott, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parkinson, Lyman Skinner, Miss Martha Perry, Miss Lucille Lenox, Mr. and Mrs. Story Iles, Dr. and Mrs. H.
