Marry At Impressive Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edmonds

Miss Georgia L. Shumway and Walter I. Edmonds, both prominent residents of this city, were married at a very beautiful and impressive ceremony at eight o'clock Monday evening, September 15, at St. George's Episcopal church. Dr. Charles E. Edwards performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

The beautiful candlelighted altar was flanked by large baskets of gorgeous-colored large dahlias in bloom and greenery, while the aisles were marked with white streamers and bows. The church decorations were in charge of Mrs. Robert Sinclair.

Following the ceremony, Miss Alice Henneberger very charmingly sang, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," followed by Mrs. Lynn Beckley playing the wedding march from Lohengrin's Bridal chorus. At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Beckley played Mendelssohn's wedding recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, John H. Robinson, of Albany, was beautiful in a floor-length white faille tulle gown fashioned with a pearl, sweetheart neckline and short puffed sleeves. Her veil, belonging to Mrs. Robert Hell, was finger-tip in length and was fashioned with a tulle of seed pearls. She wore a gold cross necklace and her bouquet was of pink roses and white stephanotis, tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Miss Clara Johnson, of Portland, was maid of honor, and was charming in a corallo-colored frock of chiffon, fashioned floor-length with princess bodice and short puffed sleeves. Her flowers were yellow gladioli.

Albert Stone acted as best man to the bridegroom.

The wedding reception was given by Miss Anne M. McDermott in the attractive main room of the nurses home at the Veterans Administration facility.

Baskets and bowls of gladioli, asters and dahlias (in pastel shades) and blue and silver salvia formed a very beautiful setting for the affair. The bride's table was very attractive with its fine Chinese linen and lace cloth, centered with a beautiful three-tiered white wedding cake topped by tiny white and silver bells and white satin bows. Crystal flower containers holding pure-white verbenas, formed a circle around the cake, while fall tapers in very attractive holders, graced the ends of the table. The decorations were in charge of Miss Margaret Hart.

Miss McDermott and those assisting her were very beautiful formal gowns for the occasion. The wedding cake was cut and served by the bride, Mrs. Adeline Powe, Mrs. Melba Lowell, Miss Olga Winther and Miss Edna Hendry assisted about the rooms. Miss Rose Rinella, Miss Geraldine Eberle, Miss Marjette Hansen, Miss Margaret Neitzel and Miss Anne M. McDermott, Miss Margaret N. Johnson, poured. The icing and tiny individual cakes were decorated with pastel-colored miniature flowers and were especially lovely.

The many attractive wedding gifts were displayed and were in charge of Miss Marguerite Feuerstein.

Guests enjoying the reception, besides Miss McDermott and the bride couple, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robinson, uncle and aunt of the bride, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Butler E. Nichols and two children, Shirley Jean and Gladys, of Bellingham, Wash. (Mrs. Nichols is a sister of the bride); Mrs. Estelle Chalker (cousin of the bride), Portland; Miss Clara Johnson, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boor, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hell, Mr. and Mrs. Blanche Boyer, Mrs. Mildred White, Clifford Hess, Albert Stone, Mrs. Henneberger, Miss Alice Henneberger, Miss Vera Heberly, Miss Margaret N. Johnson, Mrs. Adeline Powe, Mrs. Melba Lowell, Miss Olga Winther, Miss Edna Hendry, Miss Kathleen Turnbull, Miss Margaret Hart, Miss Rose Rinella, Miss Geraldine Eberle, Miss Olga Winther, Miss Marjette Hansen, Miss Margaret Neitzel, Miss Marguerite Feuerstein and Mrs. Ruth Smith.

Following the wedding reception, Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds left for points north on their honeymoon, after which they will return to Roseburg to make their home on route two, where they have a beautiful new home. For traveling the bride chose a two-piece brown crepe ensemble trimmed in fur. Her accessories were of woodland brown and her corsage was of rosebuds.

The bride was graduated from Reed college in Portland, after which she was engaged in teaching school and later moved to Roseburg to become a member of the Veterans Administration facility office staff, where she served as a stenographer and telephone operator. Mr. Edmonds is a prominent business man of this city, where he has made his home for the last several years. Before going into the garage business for himself, he was employed as foreman of the Ford Motor company in this city, when C. A. Lockwood was the local dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds are of Toledo, Ore. Mrs. Edmonds is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Velle Broadway and Mose Tison.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

TO SPONSOR BENEFIT CARD PARTY OCT. 1ST

The Junior Woman's club (which had planned a card party for next week) has announced that the affair has been changed for the evening of October 1st to be held at 8 o'clock at the Woman's clubhouse. The party was postponed one week on account of St. George's Episcopal planning a card party for early next week.

Mrs. Sidney Domenico, Miss Patricia Turner and Miss Dorothy Crummett are in charge of refreshments and Mrs. Frank Kimball and Mrs. Fletcher Gardner are in charge of prizes and card tables. Contract bridge and pinocle will be in play during the evening, followed by refreshments. The public is cordially invited to attend.

WEST INDIES VISITOR IS GUEST SPEAKER AT D. A. R. MEETING MONDAY

Mrs. Bagny N. Morgan, of Santo Domingo, West Indies, formerly Carol McAfee, of Parkville, Mo., and cousin of Mrs. W. M. Campbell, of this city was guest speaker at the first fall meeting of Umpqua chapter of the D. A. R. Monday afternoon at the beautiful home of Miss Adeline Stewart on Chadwick street. Mrs. C. P. Caylor acted as joint hostess with Miss Stewart.

Gorgeous bouquets of colorful fall flowers were used about the rooms. Mrs. Ray S. Petrequin, regent, opened the meeting and Mrs. William Bell led the group in the pledge to the flag and creed. Miss Stewart presented the secretary's report and Mrs. L. E. Goodbourn presented the treasurer's report and the new year books were distributed.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell, as program chairman, very graciously introduced Mrs. Morgan, guest speaker, who gave a charming and most interesting talk on the customs and life of the people in the Dominican Republic, of which her husband is supervisor of all mission work for the Presbyterian, Methodist and United Brethren boards. Both Mrs. Morgan and her husband teach in the university in Santo Domingo.

Mrs. Morgan also told of her trip by plane and bus from the West Indies to Panama, the Central American countries and Mexico. She is spending a year in this country writing a mission study book on the work being done in the Dominican Republic. At the close of her talk, she showed a number of excellent photographs, which she had taken on her trip and various scenes taken in Santo Domingo. The history of the islands was especially interesting, told by Mrs. Morgan and at the close of her talk, she very graciously answered numerous questions.

At the tea hour, lovely refreshments were served. The tea table was beautifully appointed with a handkerchiefed lace cloth and centered with a bowl of bright-colored autumn flowers. Mrs. Ray S. Petrequin poured.
