DR. R. L. DUNN'S BIBLE CLASS TO OPEN NEXT MONDAY

The opening session of Dr. R. L. Dunn's Monday night Bible class for the seventh consecutive year will be next Monday evening at 7:45 in the dining hall of the Douglas hotel. A larger enrollment than for last year is expected. By a large majority vote of the class last June it was decided to follow prophecy studies for the first part of this seventh year. Accordingly the subject for the first three or four months will be "The Millennium." Many features and details of this promised age will be noted which class members have never known. Charts and diagrams will be used. During the winter term a special and unique study of the gospel of John will be presented. New members are invited. Visitors are always welcome. Total attendance last year was 2205, an average of 55 per meeting. The first lesson or two will be introductory to the general subject.
