FINAL PLANS MADE FOR COUNTRY CLUB GUEST-DAY TEA

Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Mrs. J. F. Dillard and Mrs. Gene Greene, chairmen of the general committee for the ladies of the Roseburg Country club sponsoring the annual fall guest-day tea, have announced that final plans have been completed for the party, which will be a very charming event of Thursday, October 2nd, at one-thirty o'clock at the clubhouse. The affair will be open to the public and reservations may be made by telephoning Mrs. Dillard at 546-J.

The contract bridge play will begin promptly at one-thirty o'clock. Prizes will be awarded to both guests and club members and tea will be served.

Mrs. J. A. Harding is chairman of cards and prizes and is being assisted by Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. Fred Lockwood and Mrs. L. E. McClintock.

MRS. INGRAM HONORED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heater went to Happy valley, Sunday, to attend a birthday party in honor of Mrs. D. C. Ingram, of Portland. The party was given by Mrs. Clyde Heater at her lovely home and a most delicious fried chicken dinner was served to Mrs. Ingram, honor guest, and sister of Mrs. Heater, Miss Gladys Johnston, another sister, Miss Ann Boyer, Art Boyer, P. A. Heater and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Heater. A beautiful lace cloth covered the guest table and bouquets of lovely fall flowers were used throughout the rooms. Mrs. Ingram is spending a short time as house guest of her sister, Miss Gladys Johnston at Brockway.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

Joan of Arc heard voices calling to her. In an interview with King Charles, she referred to this. Whereupon Charles, with considerable irritation, replied that the voices should come to him, the king. Joan's answer was: "They do come to you; but you do not hear them. If you prayed from your heart and listened, you would hear the voices as well as I do." "If you prayed from your heart and listened." There are voices we never hear except when other things are hushed. The deepest things of life do not come with an insistent blare. God speaks in a still, small voice. We must listen. In spite of the comforts of our streamlined modern life, many people feel that they are missing something at the center of life. Hands are full but hearts are empty. Our day's imperative need is for the secret closet and the closed door. We must give God a chance to be heard. There are some voices we never hear until we pray from the heart and listen. "Speak thou to Him for He heareth" And spirit with spirit will meet. Closer is He than breathing. And nearer than hands or feet. Amen.
