"Henry feels that he'd rather borrow the money from you, Father, than go to the bank, because you wouldn't want the bank to know your son-in-law needed money."

MRS. EDGAR SLACK HONORED AT PARTY

SUTHERLIN, Sept. 30.—One of the largest affairs of the season took place Wednesday afternoon, September 24, at the Methodist church parlors when Mrs. Edgar Slack, nee Delores Longbrake, was the recipient of a delightful bridal shower.

A hilarious mock wedding was performed with Mrs. Jerry Haley as minister, Mrs. John Bratton, bride; Mrs. Elmer Jenkins, bridegroom, and Mrs. Glen Hinsdale, the rejected fiancée. Mrs. Ruth Robertson played the wedding march. The bride was beautiful in a veil of bath towels, the bridegroom proved to be rather nervous being unable to find the ring until at last with the bride's assistance, it was located. The minister's fee was paid in pennies.

Beautiful bouquets of gladioli were placed about the room and the gifts were passed among the guests. A dessert luncheon and coffee was served following the shower, by Mrs. Mark Jordan, Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. Cora Allen, Mrs. Elmer Jenkins, Mrs. Vern Holgate and Mrs. Jerry Haley.

The bride received many lovely and useful gifts from Mrs. Loyal Stearns, Mrs. Harry Stearns and Mrs. King Hogan of Oakland, Mrs. Paul Trozelle, Mrs. Harry Chenoweth, Mrs. Edith McCrone, Mrs. May Dufraisse, Mrs. Nellie Parker, Mrs. A. W. S. OF C. S. HAS INTERESTING MEETING

SUTHERLIN, Sept. 30.—The Woman's Society of Christian Service met in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon, September 25, in the interest of Mission business. The devotional service was held by Mrs. Stella French beginning with the hymn, "More Love To Thee," by all. She read an article on "Strength for Weakness" stating the strength is found in God and that we are here for a great purpose, the body being the greatest of all machines. The program pertained to mite box savings from which we are reminded of the widow who gave her all. Mrs. French also read a poem, "What Hast Thou," other poems were read; "Now," by Mrs. A. P. Slack; "Faith," by Mrs. Leta Young; "The House of Rest," by Mrs. Harry Beldin; "Aspirations," by Mrs. L. G. Weaver; "Little Things," by Mrs. Nellie Parker; and "The Red Sea," by Mrs. French, all of which were very impressive and interesting. Mrs. Weaver led in prayer.

The business meeting was turned over to the president, Mrs. Nellie Parker. Roll was called, minutes were read, and the treasurer's report given. A word of Mrs. Mable Hand, who is on a trip to Kansas. Discussion took correspondence was read from place concerning painting the church. The mite boxes were turned in and the meeting adjourned for the social hour. Mrs. L. G. Weaver and Mrs. Stella French were the hostesses and served a delicious lunch of ice cream, light and dark cake and coffee to the following Mesdames: Nellie Parker, A. F. Slack, M. W. French, M. I. Merriman, Leta Young, Mary Hayner, Harry Beldin, P. A. Comstock, Wm. C. Woods and son, Donald, Wm. Lucas, O. A. Jacobson, F. L. Young, Stella French, L. G. Weaver, John Cook, Brittain Slack, Rev. L.
