Parachutist Hopkins
Saved From Rock Tower

SUNDANCE, Wyo., Oct. 7.—(AP)—People scare George Hopkins, but six nights alone atop a rock spire leave him without qualms.

That's how the 30-year-old Texas parachutist voiced his reactions after he was eased to the base of Devil's tower after dark last night by eight veteran Alpinists.

The San Antonio adventurer dropped 600 feet to the little circular turret which he inhabited with only the wind and the clouds, the rain and the snow flurries, by means of a parachute. His inspiration was a $50 bet and the desire for publicity as a chutist.

He accomplished the feat without the required permit.

Custodian N. F. Joyner of the Devil's Tower National monument said that "the national park service doesn't welcome this kind of publicity, but we are most thankful that we were able to get George safely to the ground." He added that he would "take steps to prevent any repetition of this sort of thing."

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

Jesus said one day to his followers: "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." They replied that "they were the children of Abraham, and never were in bondage." Jesus was speaking of an inner freedom of which they were ignorant. Freedom in its true meaning and application is ordered freedom, a freedom of life, liberty and happiness which all may enjoy to the greatest possible measure without any restraints except those which bind each member of society equally and without any limitations of action or conduct except such as are necessarily imposed upon each individual in order that every other person may enjoy a like measure of freedom. Freedom is not unchecked license to do what we want to without respect to the equal rights and privileges of our fellow beings. The greatest joy any man can possess is not alone the possession of freedom, but the love and spirit of freedom, to fight for it until the last bit of substance and the last spark of life have been exhausted in order to win and preserve freedom for others. A true lover of freedom is sensitive to every assault made upon the precious heritage of freedom. The breath of freedom blows in the direction of right and justice, and brings order out of chaos. Amen.

the hostess was away from home but arrived in time to save the day. Mrs. Wade Worthington assisted in serving cake and coffee to the guests.
