American Legion Auxiliary Activities

(By Mrs. Claude Baker)
Lest you forget—we fete this group
On Tuesday night to beans and soup
Seven o'clock is the early hour
Do not come late if its in your power.

At Riversdale Grange by the country club
Get all dolled up and scrubbed in the tub
Past presidents and commanders eat
So get there early or you'll miss your seat.

Phone Emma Van Voorst to reserve a place
Mid the food and china and silver and lace.
You hate bad poetry? So do I
But I must do something to catch your eye.

In Roseburg here the Legion began
In 1920 a long life span.
Carl Wimberly first Commander then
Leo Devaney, naught's past his ken.

In '21 the unit started
Pearl Stewart with her leisure parted.
In '22 John Flurry held sway
With Ana Cordon all the way.

"Doc" L. B. Stewart next in '23
With Letitia Abrams and Liela Wimberly.
He carried on in '24
With Liela's help; they gave him more.

Department then Commander he
From work plenty he did not flee.
Oscar Berrie commanded in '25
Both post and unit were quite alive.

The only death throughout the years
For Virginia Riggs our heart-felt tears.
Leon McClintock was a find
With Lindy Fulcher not left behind.

Rude Ritzman and Lorene Allen
Commanded they in twenty-seven.
In '28 they found Bea Church
With Glenn McCallister not in the lurch.

Commander Denn, pal, comrade, Joe,
And Greta Caskey, how they did go.
That married pair, Jim Soules and Beth,
No peppier year, we've heard it saith.

State plaudits won, big things they did
We profited by talents they'd hid.
Last year our Jim—tho he may be young
Our records show big things he's done.

And me? I worked, I laughed, I sweat,
Just tried; carried on; did not fret.
Incorporated now and whole
And yet we climb to reach our goal.

Dear Bess and Irvin Riegel now
So recently did take a bow
As prexy and commander new
They each expect a lot of you.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the kindness and sympathy extended by our friends during our recent bereavement, and for the beautiful floral offerings.
Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Charles Lucas.
