Carmel Corone Newland and Henry Webster Scott Marry

Miss Carmel Corone Newland, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Newland, of Roseburg, and Henry Webster Scott, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scott of Melrose, were married at a very beautiful, quiet home wedding Friday evening, October 10th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Dr. Charles A. Edwards performed the impressive ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the presence of a few close friends and relatives of the couple.

The attractive archway in the living room was outlined with beautiful fall flowers and flanked by tall baskets of pink and lavender dahlias, pastel-colored petunias and rosebuds, while colorful autumn foliage formed the room decorations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a soft pink silk chiffon gown, fashioned with short puffed sleeves, full bodice, gathered waistline and a plaited insert in the front of the floor-length skirt. She wore a strand of pearls and carried a Colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds, white gladioli and stephanotis. Mrs. Donald Gulley, a sorority sister of the bride, as matron of honor, was charming in a floor-length gown of pastel flowered silk tulle. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations. Donald Gulley acted as best man to the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a rose-colored afternoon dress and a gardenia corsage, while the bridegroom's mother wore a blue-colored afternoon dress with a gardenia corsage.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony. The bride's table was covered by a beautiful lace cloth and gracing the center was a bowl of Cecil Brunner roses, pink phlox, white anemone and fern, flanked by tall pink tapers.

The attractive individual cakes were decorated in a pink and white motif to match the decorations on the table. Mrs. Earl A. Britton, Mrs. Fred Dent and Miss Myrtle Erickson assisted in serving.

Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Newland, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scott, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Newland and daughter, Marcia and son Roderick; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benedict; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gulley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Britton and son, James; Mr. and Mrs. William R. Anderson and son, William Henry; Miss Myrtle Erickson, Mrs. E. L. Wertz of Portland, Mrs. David H. Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. David N. Busenbark, Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Edwards and J. Clifford Hess.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Scott left for Portland, Bonneville and Vancouver, Wn., on their honeymoon, after which they returned to Roseburg and will make their home at the Scott ranch on the Melrose road. For traveling the bride chose a light-weight wool tweed plaid two-piece suit with tan blouse and British tan accessories.

Both the bride and bridegroom are descendants of prominent early-day pioneer families of Oregon. They were both graduated from Roseburg senior high and for the last several years the bride has been employed as teller at the Douglas National bank. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi, national sorority. The bridegroom was graduated from Oregon State college in engineering and for seven years was employed in soil conservation service. He is now engaged in operating his large ranch on the Melrose road. The bride will continue her work at the bank for the present time.
