Raish and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Mrs. Hatfield presided over the business session and Miss Helen Casey presented a charming talk on the play, "George Washington Lived Here," which was recently presented by the Pasadena Community Playhouse in southern California and in which Miss Casey had a part in the production. Dr. B. R. Shoemaker gave an interesting roll call talk on "Defense Savings Bonds," and Mrs. C. E. Roberts gave a delightful talk on two new books, "I Have Loved England" and "Sierra Outpost."

Members were urged to take advantage of the Red Cross home nursing course now being offered. Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., and Mrs. A. J. Geddes acted as receiving hostesses for the day and Mrs. Hatfield appointed Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. H. T. Carstens and Mrs. Earl Ulrich to act on the receiving committee for the two meetings in November.

Mrs. Marshall Holmes requested members to bring bacon drippings to the service shop as considerable demand is being made for the item.

Mrs. Homer Grow, music chairman for the club, played the new Defense Bonds song with Miss Casey reading the words. The next meeting will be the annual fall guest-day tea at two o'clock the afternoon of November 4th at the clubhouse. The affair will be open to the public and those attending will pay a penny an inch for their waistline measurement. Mrs. Frank Brown was made general chairman of the tea. Miss Helen Casey will present the one-act comedy, "The Dinner," which will include in the cast Miss Casey, Mrs. Adrian Bowen and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter with Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen as stage manager and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly in charge of decorations. Mrs. Homer Grow will have charge of the special music for the affair.

Is your child a NOSE PICKER?

It may be more than just a nasty habit! It may be a sign of worms. Yes, ugly, crawling roundworms inside your child! Other warning signs are fainting, "ticks" appetite, crankiness, itching in certain parts. Roundworms can cause real trouble! If you ever suspect your child has them, get Jayne's Vermifuge right away! Jayne's is America's best known proprietary worm medicine. Scientifically tested and used by millions for over a century. It expels stubborn worms, yet acts very gently. If no worms are there, Jayne's acts merely as a mild laxative. Be sure you get Jayne's Vermifuge.
